Game 1

Team Minneapolis (1-0)	37
Team Charlotte (0-1)	35

June 1, 2017 • Durham, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C. — The 15th edition of K Academy started off in exciting fashion, as Minneapolis mounted a ferocious comeback to earn a 37-35 victory over Charlotte to kick off the new season.

Charlotte got out to an early lead on Minneapolis, thanks to a three by Todd Costa and a bucket by Bryan Palmer, giving the home squad a 5-0 advantage. Minneapolis' Grant Gilliam ended the Charlotte run with a steal on the defensive end, followed by an uncontested layup. Gilliam's presence was felt on the glass in the early going as well, as the New York, N.Y., native hauled in a first-half high six boards in the opening stanza. Gilliam ended the contest with a game-high 11 rebounds.

With the score sitting at 7-3, and Charlotte leading midway through the first half, Nigel Fisher knocked down his first three of this year's K Academy, pulling Minneapolis within one. Undeterred, Charlotte scored 10 consecutive points, giving the squad a 17-6 lead, its largest of the half. During Charlotte's 10-0 run, Rob Green contributed a pair of free throws and hit a jumper to score four of his game-high 14 points in the contest. Minneapolis ended the run after a well executed inbounds play led to an easy layup for Stefan Weiler.

Stout defense, and looks from Rob Lawson that found Jeff Bytowski under the basket for a slew of high-percentage shots, allowed Minneapolis to work its way back into the contest, pulling the team within three points before the break. Bytowski played a critical role in Minneapolis' comeback, accounting for all of the team's final eight points in the closing minutes of the half. Bytowski concluded the contest with 13 points on 4-of-7 shooting.

Minneapolis' momentum from the first half carried over in the second, as the away team took its first lead of the game (22-21). The second half would remain a back-and-forth affair, with seven lead changes.

Ryan Webb connected on his first three of the game with just under eight minutes remaining, giving Minneapolis a 29-27 lead, which the away squad would not relinquish.

Game 2

Team Indianapolis (1-0)	38
Team San Antonio (0-1)	34

June 1, 2017 • Durham, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C. — Indianapolis, backed by a stellar second-half effort by Ward Horton, opened the year with a victory for the second straight season after defeating San Antonio, 38-34. Indianapolis extended its all-time K Academy wins record to 38 with Thursday's result.

Horton, following a one-year hiatus from K Academy, showed no signs of rust, scoring 16 points on 5-of-8 shooting, including nine second-half points for Indianapolis. Horton added nine rebounds, narrowly missing his first double-double of the year.

After Scott Lobel opened the scoring for Indianapolis with a layup, Horton knocked down his first of two three-pointers on Indianapolis' next possession. The away team looked to be in control early, holding the lead through the opening stages of the contest over San Antonio. San Antonio took its first lead at the 3:09 mark, however, after a three-quarters court outlet pass from Ty Shay found Adam Thor at the other end of the floor for the easy bucket. A made free throw by Ben Levine would extend San Antonio's lead to 14-12, but Indianapolis responded just before the half as Chris Brandt connected on the second of two free-throw attempts and Martin Brodbeck hit a close-range jumper following an assist from Scott Walker to give Indianapolis the 15-14 lead at the break.

Walker made his presence felt in the paint during the first half, blocking a pair of shots. Walker is no stranger to strong defense, owning the K Academy single season blocks record of 24, earned during the 2010 campaign.

Both teams caught a stride in the second half, as Indianapolis shot 9-of-21 (.429) from the floor and San Antonio connected on 8-of-22 (.364) attempts from the field. Indianapolis held the lead throughout the second half, never surrendering the lead.

San Antonio's Hamill Jones III made a strong impression in his K Academy debut, scoring 11 points and adding nine rebounds to go along with three steals and two blocks.

Team Denver (1-0)	29
Team Dallas (0-1)	19

June 1, 2017 • Durham, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C. — Geoff Oltmans, a four-year veteran of K Academy, looked to be in midseason form, netting a game-high eight points to go along with seven rebounds en route to a 29-19 Denver victory over Dallas.

K Academy veteran Dan Feldstein played an integral role in Denver's offense early, opening the scoring for the away squad with a three-pointer from the top of the key, and later in the half, finding K Academy rookie, Kurtis Darden for a layup during a fastbreak. Feldstein showed his ability to get to the basket in the first half as well, driving to his right before hitting a mid-range floater in the paint to extend Denver's lead over Dallas, 7-2. Darden also displayed his scoring prowess, pulling up for a mid-range jumper on a Denver fastbreak in the first half, adding to his four first-half point total.

In addition to Feldstein and Darden, Oltmans added to Denver's scoring efforts, connecting on three straight jumpers, including a buzzer beater to end the half. Denver used a late run to head into the half with a 17-4 advantage.

Dallas responded in the second half. Todd Mesibov caught an inbound pass for an easy bucket and Michael Pagano hit a pair of jumpshots during the team's 7-0 run. Darden ended the Dallas run by knocking down his second jumper of the game.

Don Yaeger helped extend Denver's lead back to 13 points after connecting on a three, his first of this year's K Academy and the 10th of his career. Dallas was able to cut into Denver's lead thanks to a Randy Chen baseline jumper and a three-point play by Joel Andersen, but Alejandro Fernandez connected on his second corner three of the game to once again give Denver a double-digit lead. Denver would successfully hold on to the lead to earn its first victory of the year and the 21st of the team's history.

Denver's bench scored 12 of the team's 29 points in the win.

Game 4

Team Tampa (0-1)	25
Team Seattle (1-0)	32
June 1, 2017 • Durham, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C. — Seattle used a stellar second-half showing by Peter Micelli to help propel the home squad to a 32-25 victory over Tampa, rounding out the opening session of K Academy XV. Micelli concluded the game with a double-double, netting 18 points and 19 rebounds, both game-highs. Micelli's 19 rebounds tie his K Academy single game record, which he registered June 2, 2016. Micelli also narrowly missed scoring 20 points for the second time in his K Academy career.

Both Tampa and Seattle showed shut-down defense from the game's outset, with neither team allowing a bucket through the first 2:39. David Goldsmith opened the scoring for Tampa knocking down a mid-range jumper in the lane. Zeb Pirzada got Seattle on the board, hitting a three off the bench. Philip Geraffo assisted on the three. Pirzada continued to be a spark off the bench for Seattle, driving to the basket on the team's next possession to bring the home team within one. Micelli gave Seattle its first lead of the game after finishing a layup in traffic. Tampa responded by going on a 5-2 run to tie the game at 11-11 at the half.

Seattle's Pirzada led all scorers halfway through the contest with five points on 2-of-3 shooting, while Matthew Koch's five boards paced the rebounding efforts of Tampa. Four different Seattle players recorded a steal in the first half - Abed Abusaleh, David Mosse, Rob Poppiti and Micelli.

Seattle turned to Micelli in the second half, as the centerpiece of the team's offense scored 15 points following the break. The Beverly Hills, Calif., native scored both from the field and from the free-throw line, connecting on 4-of-7 field goal attempts in the second half. With Seattle trailing 16-14, Micelli drove to his right and got the basket to tie the game. Mosse put Seattle ahead of Tampa after knocking down a pair of free throws with just over 10 minutes to go in the contest, and the home team never looked back en route to the win.

Koch led Tampa in scoring with eight points on 3-of-5 shooting.

Team Indianapolis (2-0)	57
June 1, 2017 • Durham, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C. — Indianapolis continued its hotstreak Thursday, using a large lead at the half to down Charlotte, 57-29. Indianapolis' Chris Brandt became the 25th member of the 20-point club after scoring 20 points in the contest.

Indianapolis was locked in on both ends of the floor to start the game, scoring on each of its first four possessions, while forcing Charlotte into back-to-back shot clock violations. Indianapolis spread the scoring around early, with Chris Brandt recording a pair of buckets, Scott Walker adding two points and Scott Lobel scoring two points of his own to start the game on a 9-0 run. Scott Ethridge was able to end the Indianapolis run after collecting an offensive rebound and finishing the put back for Charlotte.

Jim Tobin proved equally as efficient as his teammates on the offensive end for Indianapolis, shooting 3-of-5 from the field and scoring seven points in the opening half. Brandt led all scorers in the opening half with 10 points. The Baltimore, Md., native would go on to score 12 points, the second-most number of points among his teammates.

Indianapolis capitalized on a number of second-chance opportunities, converting 10 offensive rebounds into 11 second-chance points.

Indianapolis continued to play well in the second half. Martin Brodeck, a returning player from the 2016 Indianapolis squad that reached the quarterfinal round of the K Academy tournament, brought the energy for home team in the second half. In addition to netting two points, his second bucket of this year's K Academy, he also posted his third career block.

Charlotte's duo of Bryan Palma and Scott Ethridge put in valiant efforts in the contest, as each posted seven rebounds.

In the waning seconds of the contest, Frank Sobaru dropped the first two points of his K Academy career. The Moorestown, N.J., native is averaging six rebounds per contest this season.

June 1, 2017 • Durham, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C. — The contest between San Antonio and Minneapolis proved to be a game of runs, but San Antonio ultimately was crowned the victor after defeating the away team, 48-40.

San Antonio opened the scoring in the contest and jumped out to 9-2 lead on Minnesota. A baseline jumper from Grant Gilliam for Minnesota helped pull the home team within five. A well-run in-bounds play led to a high-percentage shot under the basket that allowed the away squad to move back to a 10-point advantage.

Minneapolis worked its way back into the contest, thanks to some timely scoring and solid free throw shooting from Stefan Weiler, Gilliam and Nigel Fisher. Minneapolis' offensive output allowed the team to close the half on a 13-2 run and head into the half with a one-point, 18-17 lead.

Gilliam ended the half with 10 points on an efficient 3-of-3 shooting from the field and 4-of-4 shooting from the charity stripe.

In the second half, with the score knotted at 19-19, Jesse Itzler helped give San Antonio the lead for the first time in the second half after finishing a tough layup through traffic.

Minnesota continued to battle in the contest however, tying the game at 23-23 before Jeff Bytowski connected on a layup on the left side of the basket and Rob Lawson drained a baseline jumper to give Minnesota a 27-23 lead.

Not to be outdone, San Antonio stayed close. Ty Shay showed no signs of nerves as the second half wore on, draining a corner three to put San Antonio back up two, 31-29. Back-to-back free throws during a later San Antonio possession from Shay would give the home team a 33-29 lead.

San Antonio would be unable to maintain the lead however, as Ryan Webb hit a pair of free throws with the score knotted at 36-36 to put the home team up for good.

Hamill Jones III registered a double-double for San Antonio, scoring 13 points and hauling in 11 rebounds.

Game 7

Team Dallas (0-2)	20
Team Tampa (1-1)	31
June 1, 2017 • Durham, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C. — Joel Andersen, competing in just the second K Academy contest of his career, ended his first day on a high note, scoring six points to go along with 16 rebounds and four blocks, but his efforts were not enough, as Dallas fell to Tampa, 31-20.

Andersen provided for Dallas on both ends of the floor to start the game, posting four points, 10 rebounds and four blocks before the end of the first half.

The two teams were evenly matched in the opening stanza, with neither gaining more than a four-point advantage over the other before the break. Dallas saw its largest lead of the half, after Justin Lurie connected on a jumper in the paint, moving the score to 11-7. While Dallas took advantage of second-chance opportunities, scoring four of their nine first-half points off offensive rebounds, Tampa converted nine Dallas turnovers into six points.

Tampa kickstarted what proved to be a decisive second half by going on a 9-0 run. Mike Koch highlighted the run with a three from the top of the key, before Dallas' Michael Pagano nailed a two-pointer just inside the arc to draw Tampa's run to a close. Dan Sutura responded to Pagano's basket with a long-range two of his own, to once again give Tampa a 13-point lead.

Rob Lawlor, the 2016 Regular Season Most Valuable Player posted similar numbers to those that earned him the moniker a year ago, leading Tampa in rebounds, with seven, and tying teammate Koch in points, with eight. Lawlor also posted a game-high four steals in the contest.

Matthew Estes got in on the scoring for Tampa as well, hitting a mid-range jumper along the baseline with under 1:30 remaining in the contest to give the home squad a 31-18 lead.

June 1, 2017 • Durham, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C. — Seattle and Denver treated fans in attendance to a treat in the day one finale of K Academy XV, showcasing a mix of offense and defense in the contest. In the end, Seattle claimed the win, defeating Denver, 38-32.

After falling behind 5-2 to start the game, Seattle responded by netting 17 unanswered points. Abed Abusaleh jump started the run and Peter Micelli played a critical role by scoring five points. In addition to Micelli and Abusaleh, Rob Poppiti added a pair of points on back-to-back converted free throws and David Mosse hit a runner in the paint, contributing to the deciding run, as well. A Daniel Feldstein layup, made after the Charlotte, N.C., native took the ball coast-to-coast, ended the Seattle run.

With Seattle leading Denver, 19-8, Kurtis Darden hit a pull-up jumper as the clock counted down to the end of the half to bring Denver back to within nine.

Seattle's defense was as equally proficient as its offense, holding Denver to just 4-of-21 shooting from the field in the first half. Seattle was also opportunistic on the offensive glass in the first half, hauling in nine offensive rebounds and converting those boards into 11 second-chance points.

Denver came out shooting in the second half, with Geoff Oltmans and Alejandro Fernandez knocking down back-to-back treys for the home squad. An up-and-under by Fernandez five minutes into the second half brought Denver back within five, causing a shift in the momentum that saw Denver connect on a pair of additional baskets, bringing Denver within a point of Seattle. Feldstein knocked down one of two free throws that tied the game at 23-23. Micelli attacked the rim and drew a foul on the other end of the floor and gave Seattle the lead again. Although Denver threatened in the latter stages of the contest, Seattle held off the late charge to finish the day with a win.

June 2, 2017 • Durham, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C. — Day two action of K Academy XV opened in exciting fashion, as Seattle and San Antonio battled in an evenly contested matchup that required an overtime period to determine the victor. San Antonio ultimately earned the victory, claiming the 48-46 win. San Antonio's Hamill Jones III and Seattle's Peter Micelli each posted a double-double in the contest. Jones also became the 26th player in K Academy history to register a 20-point game after scoring 24.

Jones scored the first seven points for San Antonio on an efficient 3-of-3 shooting from the field. He would end the day shooting 7-of-10 from the field and 10-of-16 from the charity stripe. The Richmond, Va., native electrified his team on the defensive end of the floor as well, drawing a charge at the 6:40 mark in the first half.

David Mosse helped keep the game close for Seattle, hitting a three, and on the following possession, popping a pull-up jumper at the three-minute mark. He would end the game shooting an efficient 7-of-12 from the floor and leading Seattle in points, with 16. Zeb Pirzada put Seattle up by two after finishing an and-one opportunity, but Ben Levine responded for San Antonio, draining a three to put the home team back up, 21-20. Mosse continued to provide a spark for Seattle, draining a runner as time expired in the first half to give his team a 24-22 lead.

In the second half, San Antonio tied the game at 29-29 after Jones hauled in one of his 12 rebounds in the contest and found Tim Dillely streaking down the court for a layup, part of a San Antonio 7-0 run. A Pirzada three from the wing, his second of the game and his third of this year's K Academy, ended the run and reclaimed the lead for Seattle.

The two teams would trade the lead over the final five minutes of regulation, with eight different lead changes. A Jesse Itzler free throw with four seconds remaining tied the game at 45-45.

In overtime, a Jones jumper and free throw sealed the game for San Antonio.

Game 10

Team Charlotte (1-2) 46
Team Dallas (0-3) 32

June 2, 2017 • Durham, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C. — Jeff Klein, making his 2017 debut, had an immediate impact, as he scored 16 points on a perfect 5-of-5 shooting to help guide Charlotte past Dallas, 46-30. Dallas' Joel Andersen earned the first double-double of his K Academy career, scooring 13 points and hauling in 15 boards.

The first half between Charlotte and Dallas pitted two stout perimeter defenses against one another, as neither team allowed the other to hit a three.

Randy Chen provided a lift for Dallas on the offensive end. After following up a missed jumper, Chen dove for the rebound and found Michael Pagano for two. The offensive sequence put Dallas up by three over Charlotte, 5-2.

Bryan Palma, as he is wont to do, contributed to Charlotte's scoring efforts in the opening half. After hitting a contested lay up, Palma found Klein during Charlotte's following possession in the post, where Klein was fouled. Klein went to the line and hit both free throws to give Charlotte the lead. Solid ball movement and a pin-point pass from Gregory Balturshot found Klein in the paint for another bucket. The momentum continued for Charlotte, as it went on a 10-0 run over the course of 2:12, giving the away team a 12-5 lead. A Todd Mesibov mid-range jumper ended the Charlotte run.

With Charlotte leading Dallas 12-7 at the half, Andersen came out hot to start the second, shooting a near-perfect 5-of-7 from the floor for all of Dallas' first 10 points in the stanza.

Dallas slowly chipped away at Charlotte's lead, pulling within one following a Michael Pagano layup. Pagano subsequently gave Dallas the lead following a laser pass from Jason Goldblatt that led to a baseline jumper. Charlotte responded immediately, as Scott Ethridge drained his first three of the season. Ethridge connected on his second three of the game to put Charlotte up five. A David Linn jumper on the team's following possession would ultimately put the game out of reach for Dallas.

Team Tampa (1-2) 17
Team Indianapolis (3-0) 34

June 2, 2017 • Durham, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C. — Indianapolis put its perfect 2-0 record on the line against Tampa Friday morning and came away with the victory, downing the away team, 34-17. With the two teams tied at 11-11 at the half, a scoring flurry from Indianapolis that included points from six different players proved the deciding factor in the contest.

Indianapolis put its defense on full display in the early going of the first half, holding Tampa without a field goal for over seven minutes. Tampa relied on its free throw shooting, where it shot 7-of-10 in the half, to remain tied with Indianapolis. A Rob Lawlor runner ended the field goal drought for Tampa and brought the team within two of Indianapolis.

Neither team was able to pull away from the other before the half, with the score knotted at 11-11. Indianapolis found high-percentage shots in the opening half, scoring six of its 11 points in the paint.

Tampa continued to hang close with Indianapolis early in the second half, but with Indianapolis holding a slight 13-12 advantage, Frank Sobaru drained a three off of a Ward Horton assist to give the home squad a four-point lead. Chris Brandt contributed a three of his own, his fourth of this season's K Academy, to give Indianapolis a seven-point lead, its largest of the contest.

Indianapolis extended its lead to double-digits, thanks to an 8-0 run that saw Justin Lurie, Jim Harris, Scott Lobel and Scott Walker each contribute for the team on the offensive end.

In addition to its offense, which shot 36.8 percent from the field in the second half, including a perfect 6-of-6 from the charity stripe, Indianapolis' defense was equally as stout, holding Tampa to just six second-half points on 1-of-20 shooting.

June 2, 2017 • Durham, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C. — Denver overcame a number of deficits in the contest to threaten Minneapolis, but the home team successfully closed out the contest in the waning minutes, holding on to the 40-32 victory. Stefan Weiler paced the Minneapolis scoring efforts, netting 10 points on 4-of-8 shooting. He also hauled in six boards and added a pair of assists.

The final game of the morning session showcased well-balanced scoring for both teams, as six different players scored for both Minneapolis and Denver.

Minneapolis opened the scoring in the contest, netting back-to-back points from Ryan Webb and Jeff Bytowski before Alejandro Fernandez drained a three from the top of the key to get Denver on the board. Minneapolis extended its lead to eight on buckets from Grant Gilliam and Kenneth Bergstol and a three from Stefan Weiler. Geoff Oltmans ended the run by hitting a three, which sparked a 5-0 run for Denver thanks to a steal and a bucket by Kurtis Darden as Minneapolis brought the ball back down the court. Denver pulled within three, but a Nigel Fisher three, and four of five made field goals by Minneapolis, pulled the home squad back ahead by six. The two teams went into the half with Minneapolis holding an 18-14 lead.

In the second half, Daniel Feldstein hit a pair of free throws to bring Denver within two, but Gilliam made a layup off a Bytowski assist, Fisher made a free throw and Michael Koch finished a layup of his own off a Webb assist to give Minneapolis a seven-point lead, its largest since the five minute mark in the first.

Denver slowly cut into Minneapolis' lead, connecting on four-of-five field goal attempts over a 5-1 run. Darden highlighted the run with a strong take to the basket and drawing contact from Jason Blust.

Denver threatened with under a minute remaining, but with the scoreboard reading 35-32 in favor of Denver, Webb knocked down a pair of free throws to seal the victory.

Team Indianapolis (4-0)	35
Team Seattle (2-2)	29
June 2, 2017 • Durham, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C. – Seattle looked to be in control during the first half, but Indianapolis outscored the home team in the second, 26-14, to earn the 35-29 win. Pete Micelli registered his third double-double of K Academy XV and the second of the day for Seattle, scoring 16 points on 7-of-14 shooting and bringing in 10 boards.

Seattle jumped out to an 8-1 lead over Indianapolis. David Mosse got Seattle on the board before Abed Abusaleh finished around the basket to put the home squad up 4-1. Micelli flashed his mid-range game by knocking down a jumper off a screen to put Seattle up by five. Jim Harris showed his tenacity on the offensive glass, tipping in his own miss to end the 6-0 run by Seattle.

Indianapolis cut into its deficit after Rob Manoff registered a steal and Wade Horton found open space around the rim and finished a layup to pull his team within three, but another 5-0 run by Seattle moved the score to 13-5. The two teams would trade buckets, and Seattle would head into the break with a 15-9 lead.

Seattle's offense was stellar in the first half, as the home team shot 7-of-16 from the floor. Seattle also took advantage of six Indianapolis miscues, converting the turnovers into nine points.

Frank Sobaru created a spark on the Indianapolis bench at the start of the second half after Horton found Sobaru open on the wing. Sobaru knocked down the three, bringing the score to 15-12. Rob Manoff tied the game for the first time since the game started by successfully completing a three-point play with just over 11 minutes to play in regulation.

Indianapolis' first lead of the game came when Lobel found a streaking Martin Brodbeck, who finished in the lane to put the away team up 17-15.

Neither team was able to pull away in the latter stages of the second half, with Indianapolis owning a slight 15-12 advantage, which put the contest out of reach of Seattle.

Team Tampa (2-2)	38
Team San Antonio (1-3)	37
June 2, 2017 • Durham, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C. – Tampa showed heart late in its meeting with San Antonio, as its second-half comeback effort set Rob Lawlor up to hit a buzzer-beater, giving Tampa the 38-37 win.

Tampa and San Antonio traded the lead throughout the start of the first half. With the score tied at 5-5, Hamill Jones III drew contact and got to the line, where he hit a pair of free throws to put San Antonio up two. Jesse Itzler finished around the hoop on San Antonio's next possession to give the squad a four-point lead, but Tampa used an 8-0 run, prompted by a Matt Koch three-pointer, to take the lead. Dan Sutera followed Koch's three with one of his own. A pull-up jumper from Lawlor capped the run for the away squad.

Tampa went into the half owning a 16-13 lead. Tampa shot 50.0 percent from beyond the arc in the first half, with Koch hitting both of his three-point attempts.

Lawlor turned it on for Tampa in the second half. The Mississauga, Ontario, native recorded a steal at the 13:26 mark and converted into two points for his team. Less than two minutes later, he forced San Antonio into another turnover, which helped turn the momentum of the half.

San Antonio showed its resilient spirit, however. A deep two from Ty Shay brought the San Antonio bench to its feet and the team within two, but Lawlor once again responded by connecting on a two of his own on Tampa's offensive end. San Antonio threatened again when Jim Bowman and Jones scored back-to-back layups, bringing the score to 36-35.

With the shotclock running down, Itzler stepped up and under his defender with a circus shot that went in and gave his team a one-point lead, but Lawlor drained a basket as time expired to give his team the victory.

Sixteen of San Antonio's 37 points came in the paint, compared to Tampa's four points that came in the lane.

June 2, 2017 • Durham, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C. – The penultimate game of day two saw Dallas pull away from Minneapolis in the second half to earn a 35-24 result. Joel Andersen posted his second double-double of the day, scoring 13 points and recording 14 rebounds, both game highs. Andersen ended the day averaging 13 points and 14.5 rebounds per game, while adding 3.5 blocks per game on the defensive end.

Garry Munson added a pair of points for Dallas, after Jason Goldblatt found him slashing to the rim. Munson, a 14-year K Academy veteran, posted his first points of the season. Munson's bucket gave Dallas a two-point lead, but Jeff Bytowski scored two of his six points in the contest to once again tie the game.

Dallas pulled ahead by five points after Joel Andersen hit a layup with 34 seconds remaining in the half, a lead the team took into the half. The home team shot 50.0 percent from the floor, connecting on 9-of-18 attempts. Minneapolis stayed close to Dallas before the break by finding high-percentage shots, converting 10 of its 14 points in the lane.

Dallas locked in on the defensive end during the second half, holding Minneapolis to just one field goal in 12 attempts early in the half. Dallas' stout defense led to offensive opportunities, as the team expanded its five-point halftime lead into a 12-point lead, its largest of the game.

Minneapolis' Grant Gilliam worked on the boards in the second half, collecting eight rebounds to go along with his two boards from the first half to give him 10 for the game.

Goldblatt, competing in just his second game of the season, is averaging 4.5 assists per game this year after dishing six for Dallas in the second-to-last game of the day.

Game 16

Team Denver (1-3)	41
Team Charlotte (2-2)	46
June 2, 2017 • Durham, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C. – The excitement in Cameron Indoor Stadium was palpable as Charlotte battled back from a 16-point halftime deficit to force overtime against Denver. Charlotte's momentum would carry over into the overtime period, giving the home team the 46-41 win.

Denver showed no signs of fatigue during its second game of the day, storming out to a 15-0 lead over Charlotte. Over the run, Denver shot 3-of-6 from beyond the arc, with Jon Yaeger, Geoff Oltmans and Dan Feldstein each contributing a trey.

Rob Green ended the 15-0 run with a nice spin move in the paint that created enough space for him to finish in the lane. Charlotte put together a 6-0 run of its own after Green's bucket, with Gregory Balturshot adding a pair and Jeff Klein contributing a free throw.

Denver shot lights out from beyond the arc in the first half, hitting an impressive 6-of-10 attempts. Feldstein connected on both of his attempts, while Oltmans shot 2-of-4 from three-point range.

Charlotte rebounded in the second half, slowly chipping away at the Denver lead. A 9-0 run over the course of the first 2:33 in the half pulled Charlotte within nine. Balturshot was key over the course of the run, scoring six of the nine points.

Charlotte's defense was also effective during the team's attempt at a comeback, holding Denver scoreless for over four minutes at one point in the half.

During a 5:19 stretch, Charlotte outscored Denver, 13-2, with David Linn dropping a jumper during that span and Balturshot adding a jumper of his own to reach double-digit points for the game. Balturshot would end the game with 16 points to go along with 13 rebounds for a double-double.

Kurtis Darden looked to quell the Charlotte run, racing to the hoop on back-to-back possessions and finishing with acrobatic moves on each attempt. Darden finished with 16 points in the game, his second 10+ scoring effort of the day.

Charlotte was not deterred however, opening another 10-0 run that lasted over five minutes and gave the team its first lead of the game at 37-36. As he had done all game, Denver's Darden collected a board and took the ball coast-to-coast, which once again put his team up. On Charlotte's next possession, Scott Ethridge caught a pass from Linn and drained a baseline jumper. A Darden free throw tied the game at 39-39, forcing the second overtime of the day.

Balturshot put in a layup just as overtime started and Palma hit a turn-around jumper halfway through the period to put the game out of reach and complete the comeback.

Team Seattle (3-2)	44
Team Minneapolis (3-2)	33
June 3, 2017 • Durham, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C. – Seattle's offense was running like a well-oiled machine Saturday morning, scoring the first 12 points in its contest against Minneapolis before claiming the 44-33 win. Peter Micelli ended the day with his fourth double-double of this year's K Academy, registering 14 points to go along with 14 boards.

Seattle came out emotional in its first game of the day, taking a 9-0 lead over Minneapolis before the home team was forced to call a timeout. Seattle was just as hot out of the timeout, continuing its run and extending its lead to 12-0. Grant Gilliam ended the run after following up a missed three and getting fouled on the putback. He connected on his second of two free throws.

Seattle shot an astounding 63.2 percent from the field in the opening half, connecting on 12-of-19 attempts. Sixteen of Seattle's 28 first-half points came in the paint. Micelli once again paced the scoring efforts for the away squad, netting 11 points before the break. Seattle's defense was stifling in the opening stanza as well, forcing Minneapolis into eight turnovers. Seattle converted these eight turnovers into seven points on the offensive end.

Minneapolis showed its resilient spirit in the second half, scoring four unanswered points off a Jeff Bytowski free throw and a Nigel Fisher three. Seattle returned to its scoring ways however, as David Mosse hit a jumper for two of his 12 points and Micelli drew contact while attempting a jumper and knocked down the subsequent free throws.

Minneapolis chipped away at the Seattle lead, thanks to a 6-0 run that included a Kenneth Bergstol free throw, a layup from Ryan Webb, a free throw from Stefan Weiler and a pair of free throws from Bytowski. Webb helped spark a late run for Minneapolis that cut into Seattle's double-digit lead. Webb scored four straight for Minneapolis, before Bytowski hit two of his five free throws in the contest and Fisher made a long three to get within six, but would be unable to get any closer than five before Seattle would hold off the charge.

June 3, 2017 • Durham, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C. – Indianapolis continued its winning ways Saturday afternoon in Cameron Indoor Stadium, defeating visiting Dallas, 46-31. With the victory, Indianapolis heads into Sunday with a perfect 5-0 record, the only remaining unbeaten team in this year's K Academy.

The contest opened with a moment of good sportsmanship, as Dallas won the tip and found Andrew Mullins, who suffered a season-ending injury earlier in this year's K Academy, under the basket. Mullins was able to finish the layup and was sent to the free-throw line, where he successfully knocked down his attempt from the charity stripe to complete the three-point play.

Dallas owned an early 7-5 lead before a Christopher Brandt three put Indianapolis up by one. On Indianapolis' next possession, Ward Horton hit a three, extending Indianapolis' lead to four. Indianapolis would lead by as many as 11.

Indianapolis employed an effective offense that shot 7-of-16 from the field and 9-of-14 from the charity stripe in the first half.

Michael Pagano looked to turn the tide for Dallas in the second half. The Atlanta, Ga., product collected a defensive rebound, came down the floor and drained a pull-up jumper before knocking down another jumper in a later Dallas possession. Pagano contributed on the defensive end for the away squad, as well, recording an emphatic block that created energy on the Dallas bench.

Dallas' defense also helped the squad pull back within striking distance of Indianapolis, as the home team was held scoreless through the first five minutes of the second half. Indianapolis head coach Jon Scheyer used a timeout to refocus his team, which led to a 7-0 run over the course of 1:08. The 7-0 run put Indianapolis back up by 19, a lead that was too insurmountable for Dallas to overcome.

Indianapolis is putting up impressive stats this season, leading the league in numerous offensive categories, including scoring offense, three-point field goal percentage, rebound average and asissts per game.

Team Charlotte (3-2)	44
June 3, 2017 • Durham, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C. — Charlotte and Tampa provided an exciting and entertaining second half for fans in Cameron Indoor Stadium, with the second-to-last shot in the contest proving to be the decisive shot. Charlotte came away with the victory, defeating Tampa, 44-42.

Both Tampa and Charlotte displayed explosive offenses from the outset with the two teams trading buckets early. Charlotte owned a slight 12-11 lead over Tampa, thanks to a 5-of-5 scoring streak by the visiting squad. Dan Sutera helped put Tampa back up with a three from the wing, before David Linn tied the game at 14-14 with a jumper.

Charlotte took its share of the lead by using a 9-0 run midway through. Bryan Palma played a key role in the run, hitting a free throw and adding a layup and a jumper to go along with a long two from Scott Ethridge. Linn contributed two points of his own at the tale end of the run before Justin Lurie's two ended Charlotte's run with just over a minute remaining in the half. Charlotte capped the half on a four-point swing. Ethridge finished near the bucket and drew the foul. After the missed free-throw attempt, Lurie caught and finished the putback, giving Charlotte the 27-16 lead at half.

Matthew Estes provided quality minutes for Tampa, hitting his trademark mid-range baseline jumper and then collecting the defensive board on the other end. Estes' play came in the midst of a 6-0 Tampa run that brought the team back within two.

With the score sitting at 27-25, Rob Green dropped a jumper and a pair of Gregory Balturshot free throws put Charlotte back up six. A Linn layup off a Lurie assist gave Charlotte an eight-point advantage.

Tampa showed heart, using an 8-1 run to sit just two points from tying the game. Rob Lawlor splashed a three and Lurie hit a pair of free throws. David Goldsmith connected on his first three of this year's K Academy to pull his squad within two of Charlotte.

Green knocked down a three to clinch the win for Charlotte in the waning seconds of the game.

June 3, 2017 • Durham, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C. — Defense was the name of the game for San Antonio in the final game of day three, as the visiting team held Denver scoreless through the first eight minutes of the contest. San Antonio would go on to win, 34-31.

Hamill Jones III, San Antonio's leading scorer this season, fueled a 17-0 run, shooting 3-of-4 from the free throw line and 2-of-4 from the field during the stretch. Tim Dille added a layup and Adam Thor contributed six of his own points to set the tone for the opening half. Kurtis Darden scored a bucket at the 3:54 mark in the first to end the San Antonio run.

Denver scored three straight field goals as the period was winding down to trail 22-9.

San Antonio went into the break shooting 8-of-16 from the floor and got to the free-throw line nine times before the break.

In the second half, Dan Feldstein connected on a much-needed three for Denver, which brought his squad within 11 of San Antonio. Geoff Oltmans hit a runner later in the period, cutting the Denver deficit to just nine, the closest the home team had been in the contest since 7:41 in the first half.

The lead once again grew to 14 however, when Jones drew contact, got to the line and hit both free throws, and Jim Bowman knocked down a corner three during a later posession. Jones found a streaking Ty Shay later in the period to put San Antonio up, 31-15.

San Antonio locked Denver's offense down later in the period, holding the home team scoreless for over five minutes, before Oltmans connected on a jumper, his six and seventh points of the contest. The away team took advantage of Denver's 11 turnovers, converting these miscues into 13 points on the offensive end.

A late push from Denver, fueled by a 12-0 run over three of the final five minutes, made the game tight in the waning minutes, as San Antonio held to a narrow 31-27 margin. With under a minute remaining, San Antonio successfully held on for the victory.

June 4, 2017 • Durham, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C. — Postseason play for K Academy XV opened with a matchup between fourth-seeded Charlotte and fifth-seeded Tampa. The 7:30 a.m. tip time seemingly had no affect on Tampa, which took an early 7-0 lead over Charlotte and never looked back en route to a 39-24 win.

In the team's opening run, Tampa relied on a variety of scorers, including David Gilmore, David Goldsmith, Justin Lurie and Rob Lawlor, putting the team's depth on full display. As he's done all season, Rob Green knocked down a mid-range jumper off a David Linn assist to end Tampa's run and get Charlotte on the board.

Tampa fed off the energy of its fans and showcased an unrivaled energy on both ends of the floor. With just under 3:30 remaining in the half, Gilmore hit the deck to register a steal. Gilmore's effort led to a Lurie three-point play at the other end of the floor. The sequence put Tampa back up nine, with the score sitting at 14-5.

Tampa's selfless play in the opening half led to a number of open looks, with Goldsmith, Lurie, Lawlor and Matthew Koch combining for five first-half assists.

Linn provided a late spark for his squad just before the half, registering a steal and finishing on the other end of the floor through contact. He hit the free throw to bring Charlotte back within seven heading into the break.

Charlotte closed within four of Tampa, thanks to a 6-0 run over the course of less than two minutes, but Gilmore squelched the run with a layup and was fouled in the process. He finished the three-point play to put Tampa back up by seven. Tampa continued distributing the ball, highlighted by a sequence of passes that eventually found Robert Fernandez open under the basket for an uncontested lay-in on the team's next possession.

Matthew Estes provided solid minutes for Tampa as well, padding his stat line with a pair of rebounds, including an offensive board, an assist and a steal.

Team Dallas (1-5)	34
Team Indianapolis (6-0)	46
June 4, 2017 • Durham, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C. — Indianapolis employed its top-ranked offense to perfection Sunday morning to help propel the top-seeded team past Dallas, 46-34.

Scott Walker asserted himself early, scoring his team's first six points to put Indianapolis up early against Dallas. Walker opened scoring by finishing around the basket and through contact. He went to the line and knocked down the free throw. On Indianapolis' next possession, Walker once again absorbed contact, this time from Joel Andersen, and finished the three-point play to give Indianapolis a 6-2 lead. A pair of Michael Pagano free throws at the other end for Dallas pulled the away team back within two, but Indianapolis' offense caught its rhythm, scoring on four of its next five field goal attempts to go up 15-6.

Dallas stayed close in the latter stages of the half however, using an 8-0 run to close out the half and sit just six points down. Jason Goldblatt took over during the stretch, scoring all six of his team's points. Goldblatt ended the game with 13 points.

Indianapolis, the top-ranked offense in the league, shot nearly 50 percent from the floor in the first half, connecting on 8-of-17 attempts from the floor. Indianapolis used five bench points from Rob Manoff (2) and Jim Tobin (3) to help propel the team to a 20-point first half.

Dallas hung tough in the second half, but Indianapolis took its defense to another level, at one point holding Dallas to just one field goal in 10 attempts from the floor.

Indianapolis spread the ball around offensively, with seven of the nine players that saw action netting at least three points and seven of the nine also registering one-or-more assists.

Andersen ended the contest with 10 rebounds. The Portland, Ore., native concludes his debut K Academy season averaging 11.7 rebounds per game.

As the game was winding down, Garry Munson drained a three, his first of this year's K Academy. He has registered at least one point in each of his 14 K Academy seasons.

June 4, 2017 • Durham, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C. — K Academy XV saw its first upset of the postseason tournament, as seventh-seeded Denver upset second-seeded Seattle, 35-27, advancing to the semifinals in the process.

Denver called on two of its key bench players, Don Yaeger and Paul Alleyne, to spur the squad's efforts on each end of the floor. With Denver leading 7-4, Yeager cleaned the glass and found Dan Feldstein, who looked up court and saw a wide-open Alleyne. Alleyne caught the pass and hit the three in transition to put Denver up six.

Feldstein's offensive contributions went beyond just assists in the first half. He also connected on a three, his first of the game and his fifth of this year's K Academy, to give Denver a seven-point lead, its largest in the half. With the clock winding down to the half, David Mosse found Grant Kessman wide open at the elbow, where the Pacific Palisades, Calif., native hit the shot, bringing the halftime score to 15-10 in favor of Denver.

Peter Micelli showed his full offensive repertoire in the contest, including knocking down his first career K Academy three pointer at the 11:22 mark of the second half. Micelli, Seattle's leading scorer this season, ended the game with 10 points.

Micelli's three seemed to create a shift in momentum. Zeb Pirzada followed suit, connecting on a three-pointer of his own, cutting the deficit to five. A free throw from Abed Abusaleh brought the visiting team back within four. The two teams would trade buckets, but a later Abusaleh free throw would narrow Denver's lead to just three points.

Kurtis Darden helped give his team the final push it needed to hold off the late Seattle charge. Darden, who is Denver's leading scorer throughout the season, assumed ball-handling responsibilities, successfully running clock for a number of Denver possessions, including with just over two minutes remaining, when he finished the possession with a layup. Darden concluded the contest with a game-high 13 points on 6-of-11 shooting.

June 4, 2017 • Durham, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C. — San Antonio took the lead late, but a 9-0 run by Minneapolis punched the home team's ticket to the semifinals with a 32-30 win.

Grant Gilliam, leader of the True Blue Top Ten list heading into the final day of competition, put together a near-flawless first six minutes of play for Minneapolis. The New York, N.Y., native scored the team's first nine points of the contest, connecting on both of his three-point field goal attempts, his lone two-pointer and one of his two free-throw attempts, while adding three rebounds and taking a charge for good measure. Hamill Jones III responded in kind for San Antonio, scoring his team's first six points on 2-of-3 field goal attempts and 2-of-4 free throw attempts.

With less than three minutes remaining in the half, it looked as if Minneapolis would extend its lead from six points, but Adam Thor drained a three to bring San Antonio back within three. A Ty Shay layup with 45 seconds in the half brought San Antonio within one, but a Jeff Bytowski layup at the other end gave Minneapolis a three-point halftime lead.

Out of the break, Terry Rains knocked down his first three of this season's K Academy, knotting the score at 15-15. Kenneth Bergstol hit a jumper to once again take the lead and claim the momentum for Minneapolis.

Minneapolis looked to be in control after pulling ahead by seven, but Rains hit a cutting Thor for a layup and Jim Bowman posted four straight points with a layup and a nice turn-around jumper in the lane to pull within one. Bowman was just getting started, registering a steal in a later Minneapolis possession and hitting a long two to give San Antonio its first lead of the game.

Minneapolis' squad showed its maturity and poise, not panicking when getting down and using a 9-0 run over 2:33 to reclaim an eight-point advantage, a lead that would not be surrendered.

Team Indianapolis (7-0)	51
June 4, 2017 • Durham, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C. — Tampa, one game removed from upsetting No. 4 seed Charlotte, gave top-seeded Indianapolis a run for its money, but Indianapolis held on for the 51-35 win to secure a spot in this year's title game.

Indianapolis showed why they earned the No. 1 seed in this year's tournament, storming out to a 12-1 lead over Tampa to set the tone early. Justin Lurie ended the run at the 3:39 mark of the first, hitting a mid-range jumper off a Robert Fernandez assist. The Lurie jumper would spark a 7-2 run for Tampa that would reenergize the fiery five seed. David Goldsmith scored five of the team's seven points during the run, hitting a pair of free throws and a trey. Indianapolis would take an eight-point lead into the break however, after Chris Brandt knocked down a jumpshot as time expired in the half.

Indianapolis held Tampa to just 2-of-17 shooting from the floor in the first half, but Tampa took advantage of its trips to the charity stripe, converting 5-of-8 attempts.

Tampa threatened Indianapolis' lead after Rob Lawlor drained a pull-up three, but the home squad extended its lead back out to nine after Scott Walker hit the second of two free-throw attempts and Ward Horton registered a three-point play. Scott Lobel knocked down his patented mid-range jumpshot and Horton added another layup to cap the run.

Indianapolis locked in on defense and converted on the offensive end late in the second half to put distance between the two teams. Indianapolis held Tampa to under 30 percent shooting in the second half, after the squad shot nearly 40 percent the half before.

Horton ended the contest for Indianapolis with 14 points on 4-of-8 shooting from the field and 6-of-7 shooting from the free-throw line. Horton registered a game-high five assists in the win.

DURHAM, N.C. — Those in attendance for the final semifinal game of the day were in for a treat, as Denver and Minneapolis required overtime to decide who earned the final slot in this year's championship game. A Ryan Webb three-point play and a Nigel Fisher three, both in overtime, sealed the 46-38 win for Minnesota.

Kurtis Darden put in a stellar effort for Denver, shooting a remarkable 6-of-10 from the field, 4-of-6 from the charity stripe and adding three rebounds and three assists to go along with 16 points.

After Minneapolis went up 5-0, Denver responded in strong fashion, registering the next 11 points. Darden continued his scoring ways for Denver, scoring six of the team's 11 points on the run. Kenneth Bergstol ended Denver's run with a corner three for Minneapolis, but Denver continued to be hot on the offensive end. Don Yaeger and Paul Alleyne each knocked down a three from the wing, extending Denver's lead to 17-8. The duo combined for a pair of threes in Denver's previous win against Seattle, as well.

Though Minneapolis would outscore Denver 7-4 from the 5:05 mark to the end of the half, Denver did not allow Minneapolis to post a field goal over the final 2:51 of the half, allowing Denver to maintain a 21-15 advantage.

In the second half, Minneapolis would use a 6-0 run, bringing the score to 30-26, but Darden found Geoff Oltmans in the corner for a wideopen three. Ryan Webb streaked to the hoop on Minneapolis' next possession to keep Denver within reach.

Jeff Bytowski tied the game at 35-35 with just over two minutes remaining in the contest while in the midst of a 7-0 run. Minneapolis' run spanned over three minutes, with Bytowski and Stefan Weiler contributing during the stretch.

With the score tied at 38-38, and less than a minute remaining in regulation, both teams had a chance to put the game away, but shot attempts on both ends failed to fall.

Webb set the tone in overtime, finishing a three-point play that all but sealed the win.

June 4, 2017 • Durham, N.C.

DURHAM, N.C. — In a national championship game that pitted top-seeded Indianapolis against third-seeded Minneapolis, Indianapolis kept its record pristine, winning the title by a 32-20 margin. Indianapolis became the fourth team in K Academy history to carry an undefeated record through the entire season.

Minneapolis opened the scoring in the contest, but it was Indianapolis that found its range early. The home squad went on a 7-0 run that lasted nearly three minutes and included Indianapolis netting three straight field goals. With Indianapolis holding a 10-5 lead, Kenneth Bergstol knocked down a three, his first of the contest. At the close of the run, Jason Blust sent a shot that was caught by Stefan Weiler, who collected the offensive board and calmly finished around the rim to tie the game at 10-10.

Indianapolis took a 13-10 advantage into the break, thanks to a Chris Brandt layup and a Martin Brodbeck free throw. Minneapolis relied heavily on its bench during the first half, with seven of its 10 points coming from Weiler and Bergstol, two of its three bench players that were available for the contest.

Indianapolis and Minneapolis traded threes at the beginning of the half, but Indianapolis' Scott Walker and Jim Tobin each added a bucket to give the top-seeded squad a seven-point lead.

It would come down to some timely shooting from Indianapolis, who took advantage of Minneapolis' short bench and its overtime contest in the game before to move the ball around and find some open shots. Tobin found a wide-open Rob Manoff in the corner for a three that put the home squad up by double-digits.

Webb worked to keep his team close, hitting a corner three of his own to bring the deficit down to eight with 4:06 remaining on the gameclock.

As its done all season, Indianapolis spread the ball around offensively, with eight of its nine players that saw the floor scored at least one point in the contest.
