K ACADEMY XVI GAME RECAPS

Game 1 MINNEAPOLIS (1-0) 35
CHARLOTTE (0-1) 26
MAY 31, 2018

DURHAM, N.C. - The 16th-edition of K Academy kicked off in exciting fashion Thursday morning in Cameron Indoor Stadium, as Minneapolis defeated Charlotte, 35-26. Five-year K Academy veteran Chris Brandt opened the season with a double-digit scoring effort, netting 16 points on 6-of-16 shooting from the floor. The Baltimore, Md., native averages 8.5 points per game over his K Academy career.

Both teams came out strong on the defensive end, as Minneapolis held Charlotte scoreless for over four minutes to begin the contest and forced the home squad into 11 first-half turnovers. Meanwhile, Andy Tanner provided energy on the defensive end early for Charlotte, displaying stout defense on the block and in the paint for the home squad. Tanner concluded the contest with a game-high 26 minutes of action.

Adam Thor put Charlotte on the board by knocking down a free throw at the 7:53 mark of the contest. Thor hit a jumper on Charlotte's next possession to give the team its first lead of the contest.

Minneapolis caught its stride on the offensive end however, going on a 5-0 run to take a 9-5 advantage. A mid-range jumper from Charlotte's Ferol Vernon brought Minneapolis' run to an end and pulled the home team back within two. A pair of Pete Micelli free-throws late in the first half gave Minneapolis an 11-7 lead heading into the break.

Minneapolis continued its scoring ways in the second half. Micelli extended Minneapolis' lead by dropping a deep two, bringing the score to 13-7. Brandt knocked down a three from the top of the key for Minneapolis, providing an additional cushion for his team. A pair of Matt Cantando free-throws opened the scoring for Charlotte in the second half.

Minneapolis' 10-2 run over the first eight minutes of the second half ultimately put the game out of reach for Charlotte.

Game 2 KANSAS CITY (0-1) 21
CHICAGO (1-0) 32
MAY 31, 2018

DURHAM, N.C. - Dan Feldstein hit a clutch three with 1:33 remaining, giving his team a 30-20 lead, and Chicago held off a second-half rally by Kansas City to win 32-21 on Thursday morning in the K Center.

Feldstein led all scorers with 10 points, hitting 4-of-6 from the field with two threes, grabbing three rebounds with three assists and two steals. Abed Abusaleh scored six points and grabbed four boards, while Carlos Fernandez and Mark Korman chipped in four points to help Chicago win its K Academy opener.

Chicago led 15-6 at halftime, but Kansas City stormed out of the locker room by scoring the half's first seven points. The margin was trimmed to just 15-13 thanks to a basket from Eric Savage and a free throw on the ensuing possession from Kristian Heugh.

Four minutes later, a three from Jeff Klein pulled KC within 20-18 and Klein followed with a jumper at the 6:09 mark to keep his team within striking distance at 23-20. But a 7-0 run over the next five minutes, capped by Feldstein's trey, allowed Chicago to put the win on ice.

Klein paced Kansas City with eight points and four rebounds, while Heugh filled the box score with two points, three boards and three steals. Savage had a bucket and led KC with six rebounds.

Chicago outrebounded Kansas 32-23, and shot 41 percent from the field (12-of-29).

MAY 31, 2018

DURHAM, N.C. - Indianapolis' versatile offense was on full display during the team's first game of the season, shooting an impressive 22-of-46 from the floor en route to a 49-28 victory over San Antonio. Hamill Jones paced the scoring efforts for Indianapolis, netting 24 points in the contest. Jones was equally effective on the glass, bringing down a game-high 12 rebounds to earn a double-double. Jones' 11 made field goals is a K Academy record, surpassing Matt Plizga's previous mark of 10, set in 2012.

Indianapolis, last year's K Academy Champions, had its offense in midseason form early in the contest against San Antonio. The visiting squad outscored San Antonio 10-1 over the course of the first four minutes to set the tone.

Unfazed by the early deficit, San Antonio cut into Indianapolis' nine-point advantage by scoring four unanswered points. During the 4-0 run, Robert Fernandez knocked down a baseline jumper before Ward Horton drove the paint and found Marty Brodbeck under the basket for an easy lay-in two possessions later. A 12-4 run to close out the first-half gave Indianapolis a comfortable 22-9 lead heading into the break.

Jones played a crucial role in Indianapolis' 13-point lead, netting 10 points in the opening stanza on an efficient 5-of-7 shooting. Jones also contributed five boards in the opening half.

Horton and Andy Mullins worked to keep San Antonio within arms reach of Indianapolis as the second half commenced. Horton drove to the hoop and laid it in less than a minute into the start of the half and Mullins followed suit to bring the home squad within 12 of Indianapolis. The visiting team's offensive efforts never waned however, as Indianapolis went on an 8-2 run which included back-to-back buckets from Jones and a Jim Harris lay-in. Indianapolis would lead by as many as 23 on its way to the victory.

Game 4 DENVER (0-1) 26
DALLAS (1-0) 35
 MAY 31, 2018

DURHAM, N.C. - Denver and Dallas proved evenly matched early, but a second-half push by Dallas would prove to be the deciding factor as the home squad posted a 35-26 victory over visiting Denver. Dallas spread the scoring around, with seven players notching at least two points in the game. Josh McNulty, making his K Academy debut, led all scorers in the contest with 16 points.

Pirzada opened the scoring in the contest, intercepting a pass at midcourt and taking it all the way to the rim for a lay-in. Denver responded on its next possession, as Lipman knocked down a three from the top of the key. Dallas reclaimed the lead following a Geoff Oltmans layup and extended its lead to 6-3 following a Josh McNulty layup of his own. Dallas took full advantage of Denver miscues in the first half, converting eight points off of the visiting team's eight turnovers.

In addition to scoring off turnovers, Dallas also displayed its ability to score while running offensive sets, executing plays to find wide-open looks for both Brian Christiansen and Matt Altman. Dallas went up 10-3 off the back-to-back buckets.

Denver responded on the offensive end, as Ben Andersen fought through contact under the basket to score. Andersen also showcased his distributing skills for Denver, finding a cutting Cesar Collado, who hit a jumper to bring the visiting team within four. Denver sat just two points down after an errant shot from Jim Tobin was collected by Jason Blust, who converted the layup. McNulty ended the 6-0 Denver run by draining a three on the wing. Dallas led, 16-11, at the break.

With his team trailing by eight in the second half, Blust knocked down a three to pull Denver within five. However, Dallas once again responded after McNulty tipped in a missed layup, leading Dallas to outscore Denver, 13-5, over the following six minutes to put the game out of reach.

 MAY 31, 2018

DURHAM, N.C. - Seattle and Tampa stood tied at 16-16 with 12:14 remaining in the contest, but after weathering a 7-0 Tampa run, Seattle responded to reclaim the lead and eventually the 33-30 victory.

Jason Goldblatt, a K Academy regular, opened the scoring in the contest, converting a pair of free-throws for Seattle after three minutes of play. Rick Schnall, also a K Academy Veteran, got in on the scoring as well, driving to the hoop and hitting a runner to put Seattle up by four.

Marcus Davis and Ryan Webb helped Tampa respond. Davis got Tampa on the scoreboard with a turnaround jumper by the elbow. Webb finished inside to tie the game, before drawing contact on his team's next possession and knocking down a pair of free-throws from the charity stripe. Scott Ethridge capped Tampa's 9-0 run with a lay-in before Bill Wise dropped a three from the top of the key to pull Seattle back within two. Not to be out done, Webb came back down the floor and drained a three of his own to give his squad a 12-7 advantage. After exchanging baskets, Tampa went into the half with a 14-9 lead.

After Tampa took a 16-12 lead in the second half, Seattle was able to tie the contest following a nice scoop on a fastbreak by Matt Levy and a layup from Schnall.

With the score knotted at 16-16, Davis once again provided a spark for Tampa, hitting a three to move the visiting team back up three. Grant Gilliam extended the lead to five with a mid-range jumper, and a Mark Radich layup led to a 7-0 Tampa run.

Seattle remained in the contest however, going on a 6-2 run of its own, thanks in part to a pair of Schnall free-throws and a Goldblatt layup. When Schall found a cutting Jesse Itzler at the 3:29 mark, Seattle was able to tie the contest, and subsequently take the lead after Itzler found a streaking Stefan Weiler on the baseline, sparking an 11-1 run. Seattle would maintain the lead for the victory.

 MAY 31, 2018

DURHAM, N.C. - A strong second-half that saw Minneapolis outscore Kansas City, 20-6, led to the visiting squad picking up a 39-17 victory and its second win of this year's K Academy.

Chris Brandt picked up where he left off in the season opener, hitting a three to kickstart Minneapolis' offense. Kristian Heugh of Kansas City brought the game back even with a three of his own from the corner, before Pete Micelli hit a pair of free-throws, moving the score to 5-3 in Minneapolis' favor. On Kansas City's next possession, Heugh dropped a mid-range jumper to once again even the score.

With the score knotted at 5-5, Brandt knocked down a jumper and followed it up with a three on Minneapolis' next possession, extending his team's lead to 10-5.

The 5-0 Minneapolis run came to a close after Garry Munson was able to convert a three-point play off a Don Yaeger assist. Yaegar found Munson streaking to the hoop, and Munson was able to finish through contact on his way to converting the and-one opportunity.

Todd Mesibov added to Minneapolis' offensive efforts, taking the ball straight to the rack off a Pete Micelli screen and finishing in traffic to give his squad a 15-8 lead with less than four minutes to go in the first half.

Minneapolis was aggressive on the boards to open the game, hauling in 15 rebounds, including seven on the offensive end, in the first half. The visiting team also worked the ball into the paint in the first half, scoring eight points (including two from Kenny Bergstol) in the lane in the opening stanza.

Minneapolis' defense was in full effect in the second half, holding Kansas City scoreless through the first six minutes. Jeff Klein ended the scoring drought by hitting a free-throw. Minneapolis continued to stymie Kansas City's offense the remainder of the contest, holding the home team to just 2-of-23 shooting in the second stanza.

Game 7 CHICAGO (1-1) 33
DALLAS (2-0) 40
MAY 31, 2018

DURHAM, N.C. - Chicago outscored Dallas, 16-7, over the final seven minutes of the first half, but Dallas responded in the second frame by outscoring Chicago, 26-10 on its way to a 40-33 win.

The start of the contest was a back-and-forth affair, with the two teams exchanging baskets, bringing the score to 4-4. With the score sitting at 6-5 in favor of Dallas, Chicago responded, as Abed Abusaleh hit a turn-around jumper, giving Chicago a 7-6 lead, its first of the contest. After a pair of free-throws from Dallas' Christensen, Kirkpatrick nailed a deep three to give his team a two-point lead. John Greene joined the scoring efforts for Chicago, draining a long two to extend the visiting team's lead to four points with less than six minutes remaining in the opening half. The visiting team's offense started clicking from there, with Greene's bucket sparking an 11-4 run that lasted nearly five minutes.

Karen added to Chicago's scoring during the run, driving to his right and completing an up-and-under. On the team's following possession, Carlos Fernandez knocked down a three off an Abusaleh assist to earn a seven-point lead. Dan Feldstein followed suit with his own jumper to give Chicago a 21-12 advantage. The visiting team went into the half up, 23-14.

In the second half, Phil Geraffo brought energy on both ends of the floor for Chicago, finding open space on the offensive side and receiving an assist from Fernandez to knock down the open look.

Dallas showed its ability to score quickly however, going on a 6-0 run of its own over the course of 1:26 to pull within two of Chicago. A Karen runner along the baseline brought Dallas' run to an end and shifted the momentum back in Chicago's favor.

Dallas was not deterred however, as it held Chicago scoreless for over 3:30 and went on a 14-2 run over a six-minute span to clinch the win.

MAY 31, 2018

DURHAM, N.C. - Indianapolis improved to 2-0 on opening day of the 2018 K Academy with a 54-36 victory over Denver (0-2) in the K Center on Thursday.

Hamill Jones III led all scorers with 12 points on 6-of-14 shooting from the field. He pulled down seven boards and swiped three steals in the winning effort for his Indy club. Rob Manoff scored nine points and knocked down four of his five shots from the field.

Jon Scheyer's team led 22-14 at the half and expanded the lead by as many as 15 when Frank Sobaru drained a three at the 10:46 mark to make it 33-18 before Denver began chipping away.

A 9-2 run for Denver, fueled by four points from David Linn and three from Jim Tobin got the home team back within 35-27 with 7:58 remaining. That was as close as Denver would get as a steal by Jones led to a jumper from Sobaru. Jones ripped down a rebound and hit a jumper on the next possession and Indy never looked back.

En route to the victory, Indianapolis closed the game on a 21-9 run over the final eight minutes. Indy hit just 1-of-8 from behind the arc, but used its interior presence to wear down Denver. Indy owned a 24-10 advantage in the paint and a 13-2 edge in second-chance scoring.

Andy Lipman scored nine points for Denver, hitting 3-of-4 from three-point range. Joel Andersen had five points, five rebounds, a game-high four blocked shots and three steals. Tobin paced Denver with 11 points and grabbed four boards.

MAY 31, 2018

DURHAM, N.C. - A second-half push from Seattle fell just short, as San Antonio held off the late rally to earn a 36-29 win in the penultimate game of day one.

San Antonio and its coaching staff came out energized in its contest against Seattle, storming out to a 9-2 advantage and holding its opponent to just 1-of-9 shooting over the four-minute stretch. San Antonio's perimeter defense was on full display to open the contest, as Seattle was held to 0-of-6 shooting at the start.

Wade Horton played an integral role in San Antonio's hot start, hitting a three, a layup and a pair of free-throws to start the game. A Brian Wickum jumper ended the San Antonio run, followed by a Matt Levy jumper that further cut into the visiting team's lead. Seattle brought the score to 9-8 after Stefan Weiler laid it in, forcing San Antonio to call a timeout and regroup.

Seattle got a stop out of the timeout and Weiler caught a pass under the basket from Levy, pivoted, and scored, giving Seattle its first lead since the 11:41 mark.

Jeff Bytowski regained the lead for San Antonio off a drive and a lay-in. A baseline jumper from Rob Fernandez provided a three-point cushion for San Antonio, while a pair of Greg Balturshot free throws added two more points, leading to a 15-10 San Antonio advantage. Balturshot returned to the line to finish an and-one opportunity with less than 20 seconds remaining to cap a 9-0 run heading into the break. San Antonio led 18-10 at half.

San Antonio came out of the gates hot to begin the second half, as Jim Bowman drained an open three. Seattle slowly cut into San Antonio's lead, however. The home team, fueled by a 7-0 run over the span of just 1:43, helped bring Seattle within two. Jason Goldblatt contributed a three, while Levy added a free throw and a bucket and Jesse Itzler netted a free-throw over the stretch.

Seattle would be unable to pull closer than a point however, as San Antonio held off the late-charging home team with some timely free-throw shooting.

K ACADEMY XVI GAME RECAPS

Game 10 CHARLOTTE (0-2) 40
TAMPA (1-1) 42
 MAY 31, 2018

DURHAM, N.C. - The first day of K Academy XVI came to a close in a similar fashion to how it began, with excitement, as a Grant Gilliam bucket in the final 25 seconds sealed a 42-40 win for Tampa over Charlotte.

Charlotte relied on Dan Sutera early in the first half, as the Brooklyn, N.Y., native scored six of the team's first seven points on 3-of-4 shooting. Cantando helped out with the scoring duties, driving to the hoop from the left side just before the substitution break to put Charlotte up, 9-5.

With Tampa trailing, 11-7, Grant Gilliam and Brian Litman knocked down a pair of jumpers to tie the contest at 11-11. The two teams would trade buckets, with the scoreboard reading 13's. Gilliam broke the tie with a nice move around the basket and a fadeaway jumper, giving Tampa a two-point advantage.

Charlotte was able to reclaim the lead following an historic shot from Sarah Goswick of Newark, N.Y. Goswick was able to connect on a three, marking the first points in K Academy history scored by a female.

Tampa responded in kind, hitting a pair of three's from both Davis and Shay as a part of an 8-2 run. Jeni Kim, who became the second female in K Academy history to record a point in a contest, capped the Tampa run by hitting a mid-range jumper. Kim's bucket sent Tampa into the half with a 23-18 lead.

Scott Kindrick opened the scoring for Tampa to begin the second half, while Adam Thor responded on Charlotte's next trip down the floor.

Charlotte continued to chip away at Tampa's lead, holding the visiting team scoreless for 2:12 while going on a 6-0 run of its own. Ferol Vernon connected on a jumper at the 9:21 mark to tie the score at 28-28. The two teams would trade baskets over the final eight minutes, with neither gaining more than a three-point lead. With the score tied at 37-37, Matt Cantando forced a Tampa turnover and took it coast-to-coast to put Charlotte up, but Shay responded out of the timeout with a corner three. An Andy Tanner free-throw tied the game at 40-40 before Gilliam's game-winning bucket.

Game 11 SEATTLE (1-2) 28
DALLAS (3-0) 35
 JUNE 1, 2018

DURHAM, N.C. - Dallas picked up its first win on day two and third overall of K Academy XVI after defeating Seattle, 35-28.

Stephen Jermyrn was hitting the boards early for Dallas, with the team's first four points coming off of his put-backs.

Josh McNulty picked up where he left off yesterday, forcing a steal at the top of the key and taking it in for an easy lay-in on the other end to give Dallas a 6-4 lead, but Matt Levy responded for Seattle to tie the game at 6-6. A Rick Schnall drive and finish at the rim gave Seattle its first lead of the contest. Schnall provided some additional breathing room for Seattle after driving to his left and finishing in traffic to add two to his nine point total in the contest.

McNulty once again cut into Seattle's lead, hitting a three from the wing to pull his squad within a point with less than five minutes remaining in the first half. A Brian Christiansen three put Seattle back up, 12-10, and though a nice move by Stefan Weiler on the baseline tied it up, Eric Seidel knocked down a three of his own, his first of this year's K Academy, to give Dallas the 15-12 advantage. Christiansen would knock down a transition three with less than forty seconds remaining in the half to give Dallas an 18-12 advantage at the break.

Dallas continued to display its defensive prowess, converting six Seattle first-half turnovers into eight points. Dallas had the best turnover margin after day one of this year's K Academy, boasting an impressive +12.0 margin.

Dallas' lockdown defense continued to play a role in the second half, as the home squad held Seattle without a point for nearly eight minutes between the end of the first half and the start of the second half. A Levy free throw at the 10:19 mark of the second period ended the scoreless drought. A Jesse Itzler layup brought the score to 19-15, but Geoff Oltmans was able to convert a three-point play to put Dallas back up, 22-15.

Seattle worked the ball inside late in the second half, getting to the line for 15 free-throw attempts and converting seven. Dallas turned its offense on with under three minutes remaining in the contest to put the game out of reach however, using a scoring flurry that included a 6-0 run on 3-of-3 shooting.

Game 12 KANSAS CITY (0-3) 32
CHARLOTTE (1-2) 55
 JUNE 1, 2018

DURHAM, N.C. - Charlotte and Kansas City both showcased high-powered offenses in the second game of the day, with the two teams combining to score 87 points, including 48 in the first half. A strong second half from Charlotte proved to be the deciding factor, as the home team downed Kansas City, 55-32.

Neither team could find daylight through the first four minutes of the contest, with the score knotted at 7-7. Adam Thor broke the game wide open, making an immediate impact after getting on the floor by connecting on back-to-back threes over the span of less than a minute. Thor's personal run sparked a 12-0 stretch for Charlotte that included buckets from Randy Chen and Matt Cantando. Kansas City's Kristian Heugh brought the Charlotte run to an end after knocking down a jumper.

Kansas City methodically chipped away at Charlotte's 12-point lead. In addition to Heugh's jumper, Eric Dollinger connected on a jumper and Klein contributed two-points of his own to pull within seven. The conclusion of the first-half matched the excitement of the opening stanza, as Charlotte's Dan Sutera hit a runner with the shot clock running down and eight seconds remaining on the game clock. Not to be out done, Kansas City's Will Weinberg hustled down the court and was fouled while attempting a last-second three. He was able to make two of his three free-throw attempts to keep Kansas City just eight points down from Charlotte heading into the break.

Charlotte shot an efficient 57.1 percent (12-of-21) from the field to open the contest.

Charlotte continued to spread the ball around in the second half. Keith Fournier used some fancy footwork to find space just inside the key and hit a pull-up jumper to give Charlotte a 15-point lead, its largest in the contest to that point.

The first-half momentum that Charlotte carried over into the second stanza proved too much for Kansas City, as the home team outscored the visiting squad, 27-12 over the final 15 minutes en route to the win.

Jason Umlah tripled his scoring average from the previous day, scoring nine points, while Cantando added 11 points for Charlotte.

Game 13 | TAMPA [2-1] 44
SAN ANTONIO [1-2] 29
 JUNE 1, 2018

DURHAM, N.C. - Tampa used a 16-3 run in the first half to seize control and cruised to a 44-29 victory over San Antonio on Friday morning at the Krzyzewski Center. Ryan Webb with 13 points and Grant Gilliam with 11 led the way for Tampa, which improved to 2-1. San Antonio slipped to 1-2.

Gilliam also ripped down a game-high eight rebounds to go along with his three blocked shots and two steals. Playing in his second K Academy, Gilliam did his damage on 5-of-7 shooting.

Gene Banks' San Antonio club led 3-2 at the 9:52 mark when Jim Bowman connected from downtown, but Webb poured in eight points - including a pair of treys -- during Tampa's run that put the game away.

The six-year K Academy veteran Webb hit 3-of-4 from long range and also had an assist and two steals. Brian Litman scored six, while Mark Radich chipped in four points, four boards and a game-high three steals.

Mike Dunleavy's team led 18-9 at the half, but San Antonio refused to go quietly. Greg Balturshot scored the first four points of the half and sliced the deficit to seven twice. That was as close as San Antonio would get. Tampa embarked on a 21-8 run and Ty Shay's trey with 4:40 remaining gave the visitors their largest lead at 41-21.

Balturshot finished with six points and five rebounds for San Antonio, while Marty Brodbeck led his team with eight points. Brodbeck was 4-of-8 from the field and also had four rebounds. Michael Koch led San Antonio with seven rebounds, an assist and a steal.

Game 14 | CHICAGO [2-1] 29
DENVER [0-3] 25
 JUNE 1, 2018

DURHAM, N.C. - Chicago got back to its winning ways Friday morning in Cameron Indoor Stadium, defeating Denver, 29-25, and improving to 2-1 on the year in the process.

With the two teams tied at 5-5, Carlos Fernandez found Rob Karen on the block, who made a nice move to the basket and finished just before the substitution timeout, putting Chicago up by two.

A defensive stop out of the break led Chicago to come back down the floor and run a play that allowed Abed Abusaleh to find John Greene for a jumper, moving Chicago's lead to four. When Jason Blust responded for Denver with a three, Mike Kirkpatrick showcased his own ability to hit from beyond the arc, connecting on a three to put Chicago back up, 14-8. A Joel Andersen layup helped cut the deficit to four points for Denver prior to the end of the half.

Alejandro Fernandez put in work on the glass for Chicago in the first half, bringing down five rebounds and tying Andersen's five boards for Denver for the most in the half. Andersen would finish with a game-high 12 rebounds.

Chicago capitalized on a pair of trips to the free-throw line in the opening half as well, with Dan Feldstein connecting on both of his free-throw attempts and Carlos Fernandez hitting one of his two attempts.

In the second half, Chicago was able to expand on its five-point lead with a Kirkpatrick layup and a pair of Absualeh free throws, but Denver responded after Bill Schwitter hit a jumper and Andersen drove the lane and finished with his left hand, bringing the score to 19-15. Though Carlos Fernandez made a layup to put Chicago back up six, a Rich Heise three pointer, followed by a Jim Tobin layup on Denver's next possession, brought Denver within a point.

With less than seven minutes remaining, Carlos Fernandez converted a free-throw, but an Andersen layup tied the game at 22's. A timely lay-in from Abusaleh put Chicago back up two and was the game-winning bucket for his squad.

Game 15 | MINNEAPOLIS [2-1] 17
INDIANAPOLIS [3-0] 31
 JUNE 1, 2018

DURHAM, N.C. - In a battle of two undefeated squads, it was Indianapolis that came out victorious, defeating Minneapolis, 31-17. The win moved Indianapolis' record to 3-0, while Minneapolis now sits at 2-1.

Rene Boucher got the scoring started for Indianapolis, dropping a three within the first minute of the contest's start. Bryan Palma added a made free-throw to put Indianapolis up 4-0 and Frank Sobaru hit a runner just before the substitution timeout to send Indianapolis up 6-0 just before the break.

Chris Brandt was able to get Minneapolis in the scoring column just over four minutes into the game, connecting on one of two free-throw attempts.

Kevin Yeoman extended Indianapolis' lead to 9-1 after finding himself wide-open at the top of the key and knocking down the three, forcing Minneapolis to call a timeout.

Out of the timeout, Coach James drew up a play that allowed Kenny Bergstol to find some open space off a Brandt assist for a mid-range jumper. The momentum would shift back into the favor of Indianapolis however, as the home team would outscore Minneapolis, 10-7, over the final seven minutes of the half.

Indianapolis called on Sobaru as a utility player in the first half, with the Moorestown, N.J., native hauling in seven boards, including five on the offensive glass, to go along with three first-half assists. Indianapolis also forced Minneapolis into nine first-half turnovers, converting these miscues into 10 points.

Both teams saw players get into foul trouble in the second half, as both Pete Micelli and Bryan Palma picked up four fouls prior to the eight-minute mark. Palma picked up his fifth foul at the 7:07 mark, leading to a potential shift in momentum.

Indianapolis led by as many as 17 points in the half, but with just under seven minutes remaining, Minneapolis responded by pulling within nine thanks to some aggressive play on the offensive end. A Chris Lanzalotto drive and finish through contact capped off the offensive onslaught from Minneapolis. Indianapolis showed its poise, weathered the Minneapolis offensive surge, and pulled back ahead by 14 to close out and earn the victory.

Game 16 SAN ANTONIO (1-3) 44
KANSAS CITY (1-3) 52
 JUNE 1, 2018

DURHAM, N.C. - San Antonio scored the first points of the game, but a dominant second half for Kansas City ensured the win for the home squad. Kansas City picked up the 52-44 win to improve to 1-3. Jeff Klein concluded the game with 24 points on 7-of-11 shooting from the field.

San Antonio was energized and enthusiastic in its second game of the day, storming out to a 12-3 run. Greg Balturshot helped pace the scoring efforts of San Antonio early, shooting 2-of-2 from the floor and adding a rebound to go along with a Ward Horton free-throw to give the visiting squad an early 5-0 lead.

Andy Mullins scored his second basket of this year's K Academy during the early San Antonio scoring streak, while Horton added a three-pointer. Jeff Klein ended the run with a layup and sparked a 6-0 run for Kansas City in the process. Eric Savage knocked down a jumper to pull Kansas City back within five and another Klein layup made it 12-9. San Antonio's three-point shooting prowess was on display, as the squad shot 3-of-5 from beyond the arc to start the game.

Garry Munson put an exclamation on the first half for Kansas City, streaking to the top of the key where Don Yaegar found him for an open three. San Antonio led at the half, 24-15.

Kansas City slowly whittled away at San Antonio's lead. Will Weinberg kickstarted Kansas City's offense with a three right out of the gate and another three by Eric Dollinger moved the team within four. Klein's banked-in three at the 10:56 mark brought Kansas City to just a single point away from San Antonio. David Merin gave Kansas City its first lead of the game off a drive and a bucket with 8:50 to go in regulation.

The two teams would trade the lead in the latter stages of the game, with San Antonio reclaiming it off a Jim Bowman three. On San Antonio's next possession, Bowman posted up on the block and caught an inlet pass from Michael Koch, before hitting a turn-around jumper to give his team a four-point lead. Kansas City scored four unanswered points to once again tie the game. A pair of Klein free-throws and a Will Weinberg jumper extended the lead to four. An Eric Dollinger three with less than a minute remaining put the game out of reach and secured the win for Kansas City.

CHICAGO (3-1) 39
 JUNE 1, 2018

DURHAM, N.C. - In a tale of two halves, a slow start for both Seattle and Chicago proved inconsequential, as the second half saw a fireworks display of offense leading to a 39-33 Chicago win.

Both teams were locked in on the defensive end from the outset of the game, with neither squad shooting over 30 percent from the floor over the course of the first eight minutes of the contest.

Mike Kirkpatrick's three with just over four minutes remaining in the first half helped jumpstart Chicago's offense. The following trip down the floor, Chicago's Rob Karen knocked down a contested baseline jumper to give his team its largest lead of the half. Seattle's Stefan Weiler brought his team back within two points prior to the half, connecting on a mid-range jumper along the baseline. The scoreboard read 12-10 in favor of Chicago heading into the half.

Coach Paulus had his Chicago team ready for the second half, storming out to a quick 8-2 run to take a 18-14 lead. The up-tempo pace at the start of the second half benefitted the visiting squad.

Chicago showed its poise and maturity, not allowing the deficit to alter the game plan. Trailing 21-18, Dan Feldstein converted a pair of free-throws before getting back to the line where he hit a third free-throw, pulling his team even with Seattle. Chicago's John Greene decided to take matters into his own hands, finishing around the basket and connecting on a jumper 30 seconds later. Weiler ended the Chicago run with a layup of his own.

Schnall worked to keep Seattle within reach of Chicago, finding a spot on the floor that suited him well. He knocked down a trio of pull-up jumpers at the spot.

Schnall and Seattle's efforts would fall short however, as Chicago's free-throw shooting was remarkably accurate. Feldstein, Carlos Fernandez and John Greene would shoot a combined 12-of-14 from the charity stripe. Green was especially critical in sealing the win, converting crucial free-throw late to put the game out of Seattle's reach.

Game 18 DALLAS (4-0) 37
CHARLOTTE (1-3) 34
 JUNE 1, 2018

DURHAM, N.C. - In one of K Academy's most competitive games of the weekend, Dallas held off a second-half rally from Charlotte and improved to 4-0 with the 37-34 victory. Charlotte slipped to 1-3.

Josh McNulty's layup gave Dallas a 35-20 advantage - its largest lead of the game - with 9:25 remaining as the visitors seemed destined to cruise to their fourth victory. But upset-minded Charlotte embarked on a 10-0 run over the next five minutes to set up a high-drama finish in the Krzyzewski Center.

Charlotte's electrifying 10-0 run was fueled by third-year K Academy participant Dan Sutera, who scored six points with two steals and a rebound in the rally. The run was punctuated when Sutera swiped Eric Seidel at midcourt, drove to the basket, was fouled, made his layup and converted the free throw with 4:56 left to pull Charlotte within 35-32 - as close as it had been since trailing 10-9 in the first half.

The chance for an upset slipped away as Charlotte misfired on its last five shots from the field, while Josh McNulty hit a pair of free throws down the stretch to put the game on ice for Dallas.

McNulty finished with a game-high 10 points, hit 4-of-7 from the free throw line, had three steals, two assists and one blocked shot. Brian Christiansen scored nine, while Amit Kapur scored four and pulled down a team-high five boards.

Sarah Goswick's sharpshooting kept Charlotte within arm's reach of Dallas in the first half, as she drained a three in the final 3:30 of the opening half to make it a one-point game with 47 seconds remaining. But Geoff Oltmans answered with a three of his own and Dallas took a 19-15 lead into the break.

Goswick, a K Academy rookie, paced Charlotte with nine points, while Sutera had seven points, two steals and a rebound. Andy Tanner did yeoman's work on the boards, pulling down a game-high nine rebounds, including eight on the defensive glass. Marty Cantando had eight rebounds.

Game 19 DENVER (0-4) 31
MINNEAPOLIS (3-1) 39
 JUNE 1, 2018

DURHAM, N.C. - A Minneapolis 8-0 run to start the second half helped distance Minneapolis from Denver en route to a 39-31 win.

Joel Andersen caught his rhythm offensively early. After making a nice up-and-under layin on one of his team's first trips down the floor, the Portland, Ore., native ran the floor and was rewarded for his efforts, receiving a threaded pass by Jim Tobin, putting Denver up, 6-2.

Minneapolis' duo of Chris Brandt and Pete Micelli continued to put work in on the floor, combining for all of the team's first nine points. Jay Sizemore got in on the scoring for Minneapolis, with the scoreboard reading 11-8 in favor of Minneapolis.

With just over 3:30 remaining in the first half, Jim Tobin drained a three from the wing, giving his squad a 13-11 lead. Kenny Bergstol, as he's wont to do, responded for Minneapolis, stepping into a three at the top of the key to reclaim the lead for his team.

Minneapolis scored nearly half of its points from the charity stripe in the first half, connecting on seven of the team's first 10 free-throw attempts.

A balance of offense and defense in the second half helped Minneapolis pull away from Denver for the win.

Minneapolis' defense held Denver scoreless for the first 9:27 of the second half, while holding the visiting team to 0-of-10 shooting to come out of the break. Andy Lipman cut further into Minneapolis' lead by receiving a pass from Andersen in transition and dropping a three. As he had done earlier in the contest, Bergstol ended the brief Denver run by hitting a corner three. Minnesota's next possession saw Bergstol hit his third three of the game to further distance Minneapolis from Denver.

Andersen employed his versatility, coming down the floor on consecutive trips, bringing the score to 35-28. Though Denver would pull within four points of Minneapolis, a few fouls and a handful of late free-throws would put clinch the win for the home squad.

Micelli finished with 11 points and 11 boards for a double-double, while Andersen wrapped up the game with 17 points and 10 boards.

Game 20 INDIANAPOLIS (4-0) 52
TAMPA (2-2) 40
 JUNE 1, 2018

DURHAM, N.C. - Indianapolis' Hamil Jones continued his impressive play Saturday afternoon, in the final game of day two action. The Richmond, Va., native posted 12 points on 4-of-6 shooting, while adding 10 boards and five assists to help give his team the 52-40 edge over Tampa.

As it's done all year, Indianapolis' offense was firing on all cylinders, connecting on six of its first 11 shots from the field. Indianapolis shot well from the free-throw line as well, hitting 7-of-11 attempts.

Tampa initially kept the game tight, but with the scoreboard reading 10-7 in favor of Indianapolis, the away team went on a 10-point run that spanned less than three minutes. Over that stretch, Tampa missed five consecutive shots from the field. Marcus Davis of Tampa ended the Indianapolis run by hitting a three, but Rob Manoff immediately converted a three-point play on Indianapolis' next possession to put his team back up 13.

Tampa was able to cut the Indianapolis lead to single digits after connecting on four of its five field goal attempts over the course of 2:30. Scott Lobel allowed Indianapolis to go into the break with some momentum however, after Manoff found Lobel cutting to his right. Lobel caught the pass and hit the jumper with less than 25 seconds to go in the first half. Indianapolis went into the break with a 25-19 lead.

In the early going of the second half, Jones played an integral role on the offensive end. In addition to back-to-back jumpers that gave Indianapolis a 10-point lead, Jones also found Eric Manoff under the hoop, extending Indianapolis' lead to 12 points.

Tampa would threaten, pulling back within eight following a pair of Ryan Webb free throws and a Scott Kindrick jumper, but the scoring was not enough to swing the pendulum of momentum fully in favor of Tampa.

Game 21 DALLAS (5-0) 53
KANSAS CITY (1-4) 36
 JUNE 2, 2018

DURHAM, N.C. - Dallas, one of only two undefeated squads heading into day three action, remained so after defeating Kansas City, 53-36. Dallas showcased its unselfish mindset, registering 11 assists in the contest, while also becoming just the fourth team this season to score at least 50 points in a game. Morton Schulman saw action late in the contest, contributing to Dallas' winning effort with a late bucket in traffic.

Dallas was on the same page offensively from the outset, with Zeb Pirzada driving to the hoop for an easy lay-in and Josh McNulty dishing to Geoff Dzubin, who knocked down the mid-range jumper to give his team a 4-0 lead early. A trio of free-throws from both McNulty and Geoff Oltmans, in addition to a three from Oltmans, extended the Dallas run to 10-0. Dzubin added a layup, bringing the run to 12-0.

As effective as Dallas was on the offensive end, the visiting squad was equally efficient on the defensive end, holding Kansas City scoreless for over four minutes before Eric Savage drained a three for Kansas City. Dallas entered the day averaging 10 steals per game, a K Academy best this season.

Kansas City's second line of subs worked to pull the squad back within three points, going on a 9-0 run that included Savage's three, as well as a three from Jeff Klein. Klein added a free-throw and a layup over the four-minute span.

The veteran Dallas squad showed no signs of panic however, as Eric Seidel splashed a three to end the Kansas City run and kickstart an 8-1 scoring run for Dallas. Dallas showcased its ability to find open looks to highlight the run, as a series of passes along the baseline and the perimeter led to a wide open look for McNulty, who was able to finish through contact under the basket, extending Dallas' lead back to 12 points.

Dallas struggled to find its offensive rhythm in the second half, but a three from Terry Rains looked to be the catalyst the visiting squad needed offensively.

Kansas City would threaten late, as the home team started to click offensively, however Dallas' first-half efforts allowed the team to maintain the lead.

Klein and Will Weinberg paced the scoring efforts for Kansas City, netting 13 and 11 points, respectively.

Game 22 SAN ANTONIO (2-3) 34
CHICAGO (3-2) 27
 JUNE 2, 2018

DURHAM, N.C. - After allowing opponents to score 43.5 points per game over the first four games, San Antonio made the appropriate defensive adjustments and held Chicago to just 27 points en route to a 34-27 win Saturday afternoon in Cameron Indoor Stadium.

Jim Bowman, one of this year's top three-point shooters, opened the scoring in the game, draining his sixth trey of the year off a Greg Balturshot assist. On San Antonio's next possession, Bowman found a cutting Balturshot, who was able to finish around the rim to give his squad a 5-2 lead. A Jeff Bytowski layup and a Ward Horton three from the top of the key moved San Antonio up, 10-4.

Chicago slowly worked its way back into the game after going down six. Greene took advantage of a San Antonio foul by hitting on both free-throw attempts and Robert Fernandez knocked down a contested jumper along the baseline to pull Chicago within two.

Horton and Matt Koch reenergized the San Antonio bench, after Horton found a slicing Koch under the hoop for an easy two. On San Antonio's next possession, Horton made a nice move to get to the rim where he was fouled. He hit one of his two free-throw attempts to extend his team's lead back to five. A pair of late Koch free-throws sent San Antonio into the break up 15-8.

San Antonio's defense was stifling in the opening stanza, holding Chicago to just 2-of-15 shooting from the field.

A 5-0 run for San Antonio to open the second half gave the visiting team its largest lead of the contest to that point. A Horton three and Bowman's jumper helped put San Antonio back up twelve. A pair of John Greene free throws cut into the San Antonio lead, but some patience from San Antonio allowed the squad to distribute the ball along the perimeter and eventually find Koch under the hoop for an easy two, just before the substitution timeout.

San Antonio's defense continued to be ferocious in the second half, holding Chicago without a field goal for over eight minutes to come out of the break. The visiting squad also forced Chicago into committing four turnovers over the course of four minutes and 11 in the contest.

 JUNE 2, 2018

DURHAM, N.C. - Rick Schnall scored a game-high 14 points and registered four steals in leading Seattle to a wire-to-wire upset of Minneapolis, 35-26, on Saturday morning in the Krzyzewski Center.

Schnall, who is in K Academy for the 10th season, was 5-of-14 from the field and pulled down four rebounds to go with his game-high four steals. Jason Goldblatt chipped in seven points, while Brian Wickum scored six for Seattle, who improved to 2-3. Minneapolis slipped to 3-2.

Jumpers from Schnall and Stefan Weiler turned a 2-0 deficit into a 4-2 lead with 10:07 remaining and Seattle never trailed again in winning its second K Academy game of 2018.

A pair of Chris Lanzalotto free throws trimmed the margin to 7-6 with 6:12 remaining before Seattle restored order and closed the first half on a 10-3 run to take a 16-10 lead into the locker room. Wickum had four and Schnall scored three in the half-closing rally.

Seattle continued to pull away in the second as Matt Levy's layup made it an 11-point game at 24-13 with 11:03 left. Minneapolis got no closer than six points (28-22) in the second half.

Pete Micelli, who entered the game as K Academy's third-leading rebounder, ripped down 14 boards and finished two points shy of a double-double to pace Minnesota. Lanzalotto scored nine points and have five rebounds, while Todd Mesibov led his club with three assists.

A rebounding machine, Micelli owns the K Academy single-game record for rebounds, pulling down 19 in games in both 2016 and 2017.

 JUNE 2, 2018

DURHAM, N.C. - Denver came out strong in the second half, but Tampa responded with a 10-0 run to pull away and earn the 52-36 victory. Slick three-point shooting and unselfish play by Tampa helped guide Coach Dunleavy's team past Denver. Denver's 52 point effort marked the sixth game this K Academy that a squad scored 50-or-more points.

Denver shook off a slow start that saw the visiting team fall behind 10-2. Over the stretch, Ryan Webb opened the scoring for Tampa, knocking down a three, while Ty Shay (two points), Jeni Kim (two points) and Marcus Davis (three points) contributed, as well. Cesar Collado got Denver on the board with a jumper 3:10 into the game. A well drawn-up play allowed Andy Lipman to find himself wide open for a three, and another Andersen three brought the score to 10-8. Collado would knock down another free throw to pull Denver within one, but Tampa would use a 6-1 run to once again distance itself from the away club. Tampa took a 16-10 lead into the break.

Tampa's defense was led by Webb, who registered three steals in the first half to go along with three assists on the offensive end and three points.

Denver came out aggressive in the second half, scoring five unanswered points. Mark Radich splashed a jumper and Andersen got to the line and hit two free-throws to sit just six points down. A Jason Blust three would cut the lead to three for Denver. Tampa responded, relying on its high-powered offense to go up 15.

Shay played an integral role in the 10-1 run that provided some breathing room for Tampa. In addition to assisting on a Webb three, he also helped lead a break that allowed Gilliam to easily finish a layup around the rim.

Tampa would lead by as many as 18 points, but Denver put in a valient effort and showed no signs of quit in the waning minutes.

Tampa, one of the most prolific three-point shooting teams in this year's K Academy, shot 6-of-18 from beyond the arc, including 4-of-11 in the second half. The home squad also distributed the ball well, dishing 14 assists, tied for the most by a team this season.

Game 25 CHARLOTTE (1-4) 24
INDIANAPOLIS (5-0) 41
JUNE 2, 2018

DURHAM, N.C. - Indianapolis kept its record unblemished heading into Championship Sunday, defeating a resilient Charlotte squad, 41-24.

Sarah Goswick's sharpshooting ways continued Saturday afternoon, as the Newark, N.Y., native drained a three in the corner to pull Charlotte back within two after the team went down by five early. Indianapolis' Rene Boucher put the home squad back up five two possessions later.

With the score sitting at 9-5 in favor of Indianapolis, Charlotte's Jason Umlah hit a jumper and a layup from Dan Sutura knotted the game at 9's. Hamill Jones, K Academy's leading scorer, put his team back up two with a jumper.

Umlah was once again able to tie the game at 11-11 with a mid-range jumper, and Keither Fournier was able to put Charlotte up by two on his team's next trip up the floor by connecting on a pull-up jumper.

Indianapolis weathered the early storm by Charlotte, scoring eight straight in less than three minutes to go up 19-13. Both teams locked in on defense over the final two minutes of the half, with neither team allowing the other to register a point before the break.

Charlotte responded to a lively halftime speech, scoring five unanswered points to once again pull within a point. Going up against a small Charlotte lineup, Jones took over the game inside, scoring five straight points in the paint to put some distance between the two teams. A subsequent Jones jumper would move the score to 26-18.

Indianapolis shifted its high-powered offense into another gear with 8:20 to go in the contest, scoring seven points over the span of less than 1:30 to put a 13-point game between the two teams.

Jones concluded the contest as the game's leading scorer, netting 14 points on 6-of-11 shooting to go along with five boards.

CHICAGO (3-3) 24
JUNE 3, 2018

DURHAM, N.C. - Fans attending the opening quarterfinal of K Academy XVI were treated to the first upset of this year's tournament, as six-seed San Antonio defeated three-seed Chicago, 39-24, to advance to the semifinal round.

Lock-down defense was the name of the game to open the contest, with neither team allowing more than one field goal through five minutes of play.

Coach Banks called a timeout for his San Antonio squad with 8:01 on the clock to regroup and reset for the remainder of the first half. Banks' timeout proved well-timed, prompting a 10-2 run that allowed the team to go into the break with an 18-8 advantage.

On San Antonio's subsequent offensive possession following the timeout, Andy Mullins came off the bench, drove to the hoop and drew a foul. The Arlington, Va., native was able to convert one of his two free-throws to give his squad a 4-2 lead. On San Antonio's following possession, Robert Fernandez knocked down a pull-up jumper to extend the visiting team's lead to 6-2.

San Antonio relied on its defense during the run as well, forcing Chicago into committing five turnovers over the span of seven minutes and holding the home club scoreless for over six minutes.

Chicago ended its 6:20 scoreless drought with a John Greene layup.

San Antonio once again responded, starting another 6-0 run that prompted a Chicago timeout with 2:15 to go in the half.

San Antonio took care of the ball in the first half, committing just three turnovers, while dishing four assists. The visiting squad also hit 2-of-3 three-point attempts in the opening stanza.

San Antonio remained locked in and energized to start the second half. Ward Horton brought his bench to its feet with a block and a layup through contact that resulted in a three-point play. Defensively, San Antonio held Chicago without a field goal for the first seven minutes of the second half to give the visiting team a 9-0 run.

With Chicago pressing in the late stages of the game, crisp passing and poise while handling the ball allowed San Antonio to break the press and find some easy buckets to maintain its lead and secure the win.

JUNE 3, 2018

DURHAM, N.C. - Ninth-seeded Kansas City withstood a furious second-half rally by 10th-seeded Denver and advanced to the K Academy XVI Quarterfinals on Sunday with a 36-29 victory in the K Center.

Jeff Klein and Will Weinberg each scored 10 points to pace Kansas City (2-4), while Eric Savage was a savage on the glass with a team-high 13 rebounds to go with his two points, two steals and two assists. Klein finished a bucket shy of a double-double.

Gary Munson's jumper gave KC a 25-17 early in the second half, but Denver (0-6) turned up its defensive pressure and began cashing in on the offensive end. A jumper from Jason Blust ignited an 11-0 run for Denver over the next three minutes and Denver seized a 28-25 lead when Jim Tobin hit a layup on a feed from Joel Andersen after a steal from Rich Heise.

The lead was short lived, however, as Weinberg snapped the drought with a jumper at 6:20. Jeff Klein knocked down a pair of free throws to give Kansas City the lead back at 29-28 - it was a lead the home team would not relinquish.

Kansas City hit four of their six free throws in the game's final 90 seconds to seal the victory.

Tobin scored eight points to lead Denver, while Joel Anderson ripped down 13 rebounds and had three assists and three steals to go with his two points. Andy Lipman chipped in six points.

Munson, participating in his 15th straight K Academy, scored seven points on 3-of-4 shooting from the field for KC. He drained his only three-point attempt and had three boards and a blocked shot.

Game 28 MINNEAPOLIS (4-2) 41
TAMPA (3-3) 36
 JUNE 3, 2018

DURHAM, N.C. - Tampa, boasting one of the highest-scoring offenses in this year's K Academy was held to just 36 points, as five-seed Minneapolis upset four-seed Tampa, 41-36.

Minneapolis' Chris Brandt shouldered early scoring responsibilities, netting a three and a jumper to give his team five points. Tampa's Jeni Kim responded with a three of her own, her first of this year's K Academy. Ryan Webb also helped with Tampa's offensive efforts, hitting a three, while assisting on a pair of buckets.

The two teams traded threes after Kenny Bergstol drained a trey in transition and Marcus Davis came back down the court and hit a rythm three for Tampa. Davis' three pulled Tampa within a point of Minneapolis, before a Grant Gilliam layup provided Tampa with it's first lead since the 7:11 mark.

Just before the half, Bergstol connected on his second of two first-half threes to give Minneapolis a one-point lead heading into the break.

Minneapolis shot an impressive 60.0 percent from beyond the arc in the first half, thanks, in part, to Bergstol hitting both of his attempts and Brandt connecting on his lone attempt.

Nigel Fisher, known for his defensive prowess, made contributions on the offensive end for Minneapolis, as well, hitting a three to open the scoring in the second half.

With his team trailing, 29-25, Davis caught a pass from Grant Gilliam by the elbow and hit a fadeaway jumper to end a three-minute scoring drought for Tampa. The momentum would begin to shift in Tampa's favor, as the team went on a 6-1 run to take a 31-30 lead.

Brandt pulled up for a jumper just inside the arc, allowing Minneapolis to regain the lead, 32-31. Two possessions later, Pete Micelli would clean up an errant Fisher three attempt, finish near the basket through contact and complete a three-point play. Tampa would match with a three-point play of its own from Mark Radich, and a Gilliam runner would give Tampa the lead. Micelli would once again finish near the rim with just over a minute remaining to put Minneapolis up 37-36. Micelli collected a second missed three from Fisher with less than 20 seconds remaining to seal the win.

 JUNE 3, 2018

DURHAM, N.C. - Rick Schnall poured in 14 points to pace seventh-seeded Seattle, which closed the first half on a 10-3 run and cruised to a 42-36 victory over eighth-seeded Charlotte on Sunday morning in the K Center.

The victory advanced Seattle (3-3) to the K Academy Quarterfinals, while Charlotte ended its weekend with a 1-5 mark.

Schnall did his damage on 5-of-12 shooting from the field and hit 4-of-7 at the line - three came in the final two minutes. He also had two assists and a pair of steals. Stefan Weiler scored nine and Matt Levy drained each of his four shots for an eight-point effort.

Seattle extended its run into the second half, opening up 18-point leads on a two occasions. Schnall canned a jumper to make it 35-17 with 9:56 left, and a Weiler putback off an offensive rebound made it 37-19 with 8:24 to go.

Charlotte had one more run as Sarah Goswick hit a three to make it a 10-point game at 39-29, capping a 10-2 rally by the visitors. But Schnall would hit three free throws in the game's final two minutes to hold off the Charlotte comeback.

Matt Cantando led Charlotte with 11 points and five rebounds, while Ferol Vernon scored seven.

Seattle shot 43 percent for the game, including a 50-percent clip (8-of-16) in the second half. The victors owned an 18-6 edge in points in the paint.

Game 30 KANSAS CITY (2-5) 19
INDIANAPOLIS (6-0) 42
 JUNE 3, 2018

DURHAM, N.C. - Indianapolis maintained its perfect season Sunday morning in Cameron Indoor Stadium, defeating Kansas City, 42-19, to reach the Final Four of K Academy XVI.

Indianapolis looked as good as it has all K Academy, storming out to an 11-1 lead on Kansas City. Frank Sobaru, Hamill Jones, Rene Boucher and Bryan Palma all contributed to the strong start for Indianapolis.

Kristian Heugh provided some offense for Kansas City, draining his second three of this year's K Academy, bringing the score to 15-6. A pair of Rob Manoff free-throws and a layup from Jones would extend Indianapolis' lead back to 13, however. Indianapolis took advantage of some helter skelter play from Kansas City late to go into the break up, 27-11.

As its been all year, Indianapolis was effecient from the field to start the game, shooting 10-of-20 from the floor. Indianapolis also came into the contest with the second-highest steals per game ratio heading into the final day. The home squad registered nine first-half steals, while forcing Kansas City into 11 turnovers. Indianapolis converted the 11 Kansas City turnovers into 12 points, while also getting out on the break to net 10 fast break points.

Indianapolis' first-half attack was well-balanced, with seven different players accounting for at least one point.

Indianapolis' blend of smothering defense and high-octane offense continued in the second half, holding Kansas City scoreless for over six minutes to open the second stanza, while posting a 6-0 run over the same six-minute stretch.

Kansas City put in one last push with just under seven minutes remaining in the contest, not allowing Indianapolis to score for nearly four straight minutes and forcing the number one seed to shoot 0-of-12 during that span. Indianapolis' defense was equally stout however, holding Kansas City scoreless over the same stretch.

Palma, averaging over five points a game this year, led all scorers with 13 points on 6-of-10 shooting from the floor. Matt Koch hauled in a game-high eight boards for Kansas City.

Game 31	SEATTLE (4-3) DALLAS (5-1) JUNE 3, 2018	28 27
-------------------	---	------------------------

DURHAM, N.C. - Trailing 27-26 with less than 10 seconds remaining, Rick Schnall didn't let the moment escape him, driving to the basket and drawing contact to earn a trip to the line. The Purchase, N.Y., native would hit both free-throws to put his team up, 28-27, and solidify seven-seed Seattle's upset over then-undefeated two-seed Dallas.

Seattle came out swinging in the early going against Dallas, claiming an 8-0 lead. Rick Schnall played a crucial role in the 8-0 run, scoring six of the team's eight points. Schnall opened the scoring by knocking down a pair of free-throws, and followed those two points with a layup. Jason Goldblatt posted two points of his own, and another Schnall layup would cap the run.

Brian Wickum got in on the scoring for Seattle while coming off the bench, netting five points in the first half on 2-of-4 shooting and helping the visiting squad take a 13-7 lead into the break.

Seattle's defense was flying around the court, allowing Dallas to shoot just 1-of-11 from the field through 10 minutes of action and 2-of-16 for the half. Seattle's perimeter defense was also utilized, holding Dallas scoreless from beyond the arc.

Schnall continued to penetrate the Dallas defense in the second half, finding a soft spot by the free-throw line for his patented pull-up jumper.

Dallas slowly worked its way back into the contest, scoring back-to-back jumpers from Stephen Jermyn and Matt Altman. A Geoff Dzubin layup knotted the game at 15-15 with just over eight minutes remaining in the contest.

Schnall looked to take matters into his own hands, scoring on back-to-back trips down the floor for Seattle with aggressive drives to the basket, putting Seattle back ahead, 24-19. Seattle converted three-straight field goal attempts over the stretch.

Though Dallas struggled to score from the field, the home squad continued driving to the basket and got to the line. Josh McNulty was critical over this stretch, shooting a combined 9-of-11 from the charity stripe. McNulty would finish with 13 points and 10 boards.

Game 32	MINNEAPOLIS (5-2) INDIANAPOLIS (6-1) JUNE 3, 2018	46 37
-------------------	---	------------------------

DURHAM, N.C. - In a rematch of last year's National Championship, Indianapolis and Minneapolis faced off to see who would punch their ticket for this year's final. In a hotly contested game that required overtime to determine a winner, Minneapolis came out victorious, defeating Indianapolis, 46-37. Chris Brandt knocked down clutch free-throws late in the game to seal the win and finished shooting 12-of-13 from the charity stripe.

Minneapolis' Todd Mesibov was his team's offensive spark plug, draining a three less than thirty seconds into the game. The visiting team's offense started to catch its stride, as Brandt followed Mesibov's three with a jumper and Pete Micelli gave Minneapolis a free-throw. Chris Lanzalotto added two points to give Minneapolis the 8-2 lead.

Indianapolis showed no signs of panic, going on an 10-1 run to earn its first lead of the contest. As he's done all year, Hamill Jones served as the run's catalyst, scoring back-to-back buckets. After adding a pair of Rob Manoff free-throws, Jones stole the ball at midcourt and drove to the basket for two more points. On Indianapolis' next possession, Jones found a slicing Manoff, who finished under the basket.

Minneapolis called on two of its leading scorers, getting the ball in the hands of Micelli and Brandt to tie the game at 16-16.

Both teams boast size in its lineup and each club utilized its length to get the ball in the paint. The two squads combined to score 20 points in the lane to start the game.

Indianapolis put a six-point gap between Minneapolis early in the second half, thanks to a quick 6-0 run that ran the span of 28 seconds. Over the stretch, Kevin Yeoman banked in a three from the top of the key and Manoff successfully converted a three-point play.

Minneapolis retaliated with its own 6-0 run, capped off by a deep Nigel Fisher three, forcing Indianapolis to call a timeout with 7:16 remaining in regulation.

With the score sitting at 35-32 in favor of Indianapolis, Minneapolis' Brandt hit a mid-range jumper and was fouled in the process. He was able to complete the three-point play to tie the game. Not to be outdone, Jones found Lobel who knocked down his jump shot with 54 seconds to go. Brandt was fouled on the other end and hit two free-throws to tie the game again at 37's. The game would require overtime to determine the winner.

In overtime, Brandt got to the line and hit both free-throws. After forcing an Indianapolis turnover, Brandt drove to the hoop and drew a blocking call. He knocked down both free-throws and sealed the win for Minneapolis.

Manoff provided quality minutes off the bench for Indianapolis, tripling his season average of 4.4 points per game by scoring 13 in Sunday afternoon's contest.

Game 33	SEATTLE (4-4) SAN ANTONIO (4-3) JUNE 3, 2018	30 31
-------------------	--	------------------------

DURHAM, N.C. - The final matchup for K Academy XVI was set after San Antonio defeated Seattle to earn a spot in this year's championship game.

From the outset, the two teams were evenly matched throughout the course of the game. An early four-point advantage for Seattle dissolved following a Greg Balturshot jumper and a subsequent free-throw. Michael Koch got on the board after Ward Horton, the team's assist leader, found him under the basket. The game would end up tied at 9-9 and again at 13-13.

Marty Brodbeck broke the 13-13 deadlock with a pair of free-throws, putting San Antonio up two. A defensive stop for San Antonio and a Horton free-throw would move the lead to three for San Antonio. A late Brian Wickum free-throw put Seattle down just two heading to the break.

After shooting 0-of-2 from beyond the arc in the first half, San Antonio started to find its range in the second, knocking down two of its first four attempts from deep. The two three-pointers would create some daylight between the two teams, but Seattle's Wickum hit a three on the other end to pull the visiting team back within five points.

Midway through the second half, both teams made adjustments on the defensive end, making it difficult for either team to create or get clean shots up around the rim.

With the score sitting at 28-21 in favor of San Antonio and 3:04 on the clock, the home team took a time out to regroup and create a plan on how to successfully close out the contest. It would be Seattle that would score out of the timeout however, as Jesse Itzler finished near the bucket to bring the visiting squad back within five.

Following a Horton free-throw, Schnall would hit a mid-range jumper to bring the score to 29-25. Schnall would hit a pair of free-throws to pull Seattle back within two. Schnall would once again find himself on the charity stripe where he would hit one of two. San Antonio inbounded and Robert Fernandez was fouled with 5.2 on the clock. He would hit the front-end of the one-and-one and make the second to put San Antonio up three and seal the win.

SAN ANTONIO (4-4) 37

JUNE 3, 2018

DURHAM, N.C. - For the first time in K Academy history, a five seed faced a six seed in the National Championship, as five-seed Minneapolis took on six-seed San Antonio to see who would be crowned K Academy XVI National Champion. The final game did not disappoint, as Minneapolis earned its first national championship by way of a 47-37 win.

San Antonio was forced to call a quick timeout early in the first half after Minneapolis poured in a quick seven points. Chris Brandt, as he's done all season, helped get things going on the offensive end for Minneapolis, splashing a three from the top of the key to go along with a jumper. Minneapolis also worked the ball in to Micelli to establish the inside-out game.

Coach Banks' timeout was well timed, as his squad scored its first two points of the contest on a Jeff Bytowski layup out of the break. Bytowski added another two points on San Antonio's next possession, connecting on a baseline jumper.

Minneapolis' was not to be deterred however, registering a field goal on four of their next five possessions to regain a seven-point lead.

Micelli's presence was felt in the paint in the waning minutes of the first half, scoring or assisting on six straight Minneapolis points. Greg Balturshot would knock down a long two just before the halftime buzzer sounded to bring San Antonio within seven points.

San Antonio and Minneapolis exchanged buckets coming out of the half, including a Rob Lawson jumper for Minneapolis.

San Antonio put together a quick 6-0 run, but Nigel Fisher connected on a three to reignite Minneapolis' offense.

With the scoreboard reading 29-25 in favor of Minneapolis, Horton stepped into a wide-open three and pulled San Antonio back within a point.

Both teams fought through fatigue as the clock ticked down. Horton showed he had an extra gear, rushing down the floor on a fast break and absorbing contact. He followed through on his free-throws, bringing the score to 31-30.

Minneapolis was able to make one final push with under three to go, scoring 12 straight to claim the national championship.
